May the Lord grant you understanding of this prayer journal as you pray, consequent upon which there will be changes in your life or your prayer group or Family, Church, Nation, and Continent. What is presented are not Jewish Dates or the Jewish calendar but what the LORD instituted which we all see manifested in the movement of the Moon every month. The enemy has always manipulated these bodies for which believers are just becoming aware. This season is also a special edition of revelation which brings a new breath of fresh air without adding to the word of God but confirms it and makes our faith stronger.

You may wish to pray in two ways:-

1. You can pray using the whole journal to pray into the womb of time according to the authority level granted to you by your appointment in the Lord. Expect the prophetic germination [as you saturate the ground and the womb of time with God's ordination] to happen. In any case ensure your seed remains in the ground as investment for the coming year. Determine, and command what this month should deliver to you and what it should not and must Not.
2. You can also use this daily for your prayers AND DEVOTION to prevail at the gate of each day, especially on critical days of intense warfare in the heavens. Remember that the day starts from 6pm for the next 24 hours. If you are in Britain for instance the time will be early hours of the next day in Hong Kong @ your 6pm.
3. This document may seem lengthy, but it shows the effort that was generated in prayer. You can keep it and save it for use in a good way.

Pray that your prophetic faculties will be on the rise and be enlarged and sharp... visions; dreams; interpreting symbols; applying parables; riddles; revelation and predictions; accurate delivery of words of wisdom and words of knowledge; intercessions; interaction with heaven etc.. Divine decrees to cause the future and many other such faculties.

SHAPE YOUR DAY, MONTH AND CONSEQUENTLY YOUR YEARS

Ignorance of what every month holds for you, your family, community, nation, the church and the continent at large has caused many to perish, miss out or not fully access what God has in store for them.

Understanding the heavens and what they signify every month is another very key aspect as we enter this new level of our assignments among the nations. While the kingdom of darkness has used astrology, prognostications, and all manner of demonic methods to control the activities on earth using the heavens, the church continues in ignorance. They have even employed materialism to blind believers in Jesus Christ, whereas all things are yours

We thank God for the many people whom He is raising in different parts of the world to understand what the heavens hold for us every month. As you seek deeper understanding, the Holy Spirit will guide you into greater revelations. Amen.

A COMMUNITY OF FAITH AND OBEDIENCE.

Introduction

What do we do when our faith is not working as it should? Why is that the people of old endured hardness as soldiers but today's community of faith often falls down within the distance?

Why do we depend so much on the economies of the world and ignore to add the faith of God? What failures has the faith community experienced and should seek repentance? If we have more of the strength of the Holy Spirit, shall we be consumed in hard times?

How has our experiences led to believe negatively leading to poor choices, decisions and consequently a poor harvest and results? What should we be doing consistently?

The community that stems from Abraham must be marked as a people who trust in the promise of God, rather than trusting in their capacity to build their own future security (as they tried at Babel). This is why one common name for Christians is particularly appropriate—they are simply “believers”. It is also a community of obedience. Because of his faith, Abraham obeyed God; he got up and left his homeland at God’s command. And when he faced the supreme test of sacrificing the son who embodied all God had promised him, he was willing to obey even then, though God intervened to stop him. So at the climax of that narrative, God reconfirms his promise to bless all nations because of Abraham’s obedience (Gen. 22:15-18). So Hebrews 11 and James 2:20-24 set Abraham’s obedience alongside his faith as proof of his authentic relationship with God.

The church, then, in tracing its roots back to God’s call and promise to Abraham finds here some of its key. It is the community that lives by faith in the promise of God and proves that faith by practical and sometimes sacrificial obedience.

Repentance from Backsliding

In a time of difficult circumstances, encouragement is such an important element of church life that the Bible commands us to encourage one another everyday (Heb. 3:13). There are times for rebuke, but there is always time for Christians to encourage one another. There is always time also to confess our failure in manifesting missional holiness in at least the following ways:

1. 'The Great Commission' must not be understood only as an evangelistic mandate, but an explicit command is to 'make disciples'
2. We have partially included the fact and the demand of holiness as an integral part of our missional outreach. We tolerate within the church a whole range of unholy, ungodly, un-Christlike behaviours, without recognizing that they pollute and undermine our mission. There are many varieties of such unholiness which we must address in humility.

We must confess that we have allowed ourselves to be captivated by idolatries and ideologies that militate against biblical holiness. We identified the following forms of idolatry among Christians today: -

3. Consumerism or materialistic greed (when we exalt prosperity over generosity -Acts 20:35- It is more blessed to give than to receive)

Amrillah in his work states: "The modern world is characterized by rapid progress in various fields, including the production and consumption sectors. People now live in an abundance of goods and services. Ease of access and incessant marketing practices create a desire to keep buying and consuming. This phenomenon is known as consumerism and materialism culture.

Consumerism is basically an ideology that emphasizes the purchase and ownership of goods as a source of happiness and fulfilment of social status. Individuals are encouraged to keep buying the latest items, regardless of whether they really need them or not. Heavy advertising showcases a glamorous lifestyle that can only be achieved through the possession of certain goods. This triggers feelings of dissatisfaction and artificial needs that constantly need to be met."

The culture of materialism, which is the cornerstone of consumerism, makes possession of goods a measure of success and self-worth. Individuals are judged by what they own, not who they are. Those who own branded and luxury goods are considered more successful and superior. Conversely, those who are unable to keep up with the latest consumption trends are looked down upon. As a result, society is trapped in a relentless competition of possessions.

*It is also not uncommon for them to get trapped in a debt hole due to unwise spending. Furthermore, consumerism and a culture of materialism create an individualistic and apathetic society. Social relationships are based on self-interest. Family ties and friendships weaken as the main focus of life turns to material possessions. We have to repent of these. The church around the world is overwhelmed by these things.

4. Violence (when we forget Jesus' warnings about the sword and his commendation of peace-making). violence, an act of physical force that causes or is intended to cause harm. The damage inflicted by violence is traumatic and may be physical, or psychological. Violence is one of the most problematic issues societies faces today, and it has been increasing day after day, in the streets of our cities. The most common description of what violence really can be given as negativity towards something or someone either through physical or verbal actions, which often causes the victim to suffer pain.

There is so much violence on social media among all types of people despite community rules. They call it bullying. Pastors against pastors and children against children in schools and gang boys in street fights etc.

The different types of violence that exist in our multi-cultural society are outnumbered, but the most evident ones are domestic, sexual, gang and racial violence.

5. Ethnic pride (when we let the blood of ethnic identity be thicker than the water of baptism in Christ -e.g. identity politics).

The noun pride describes a feeling of happiness that comes from achieving something. When you do a good job or finish a difficult task, you feel happy. Pride can also have a negative meaning and refer to exceedingly high self-regard.

Pride is a self-conscious emotion regarding when our social identity is at stake. However, delight, dignity, happiness, honor, joy, pleasure, satisfaction, savoring confidence in God, and self-respect is different from arrogance.

Identity politics has damaged Christians in many countries who ignore the kingdom of God for the reasons already mentioned in 1-4.

6. Selfishness (when we ignore international and structural injustice that creates and perpetuates poverty or put short term convenience above the needs of future generations). Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.

If we follow Jesus' example, we will not grow to become selfish. As Philippians 2:2-3 tells us, we are to value others about ourselves. Rather than looking out for our own interests, we should look to the interests of others.

In our everyday lives, we are to mirror Christ and cause others to see Him through our actions. We need to be bright lights for Christ in this dark world (Matt. 5:14-16). The trait of selfishness will not shine Christ's light to the lost world.

7. Gender injustice (when we privilege male over female and ignore the oppression of women within and outside the church). Gender inequality in girls' education. Even before the pandemic, girls were more likely than boys to never set foot in a classroom and be denied equal opportunities. ...
  - + Child marriage. ...
  - + Gender-based violence. ...
  - + Child labour.
  - + Abusive material relationship (domestic violence)
  - + Children sacrifice and slavery... (recently over 320, 000 are missing in a particular country)
  - + More that 17,000 young domestic girls are trapped in the Lebanese/Israeli war from a particular African country this season (Nov.2024).

Gender inequality underpins many problems which disproportionately affect women and girls, such as domestic and sexual violence, lower pay, lack of access to education, and inadequate healthcare.

In all such matters, we see the need for the church itself to seek repentance, forgiveness and reconciliation, and to pray for a more prophetic and missional holiness of life and witness.

To speak of the holiness of the church is to speak of the eternal purpose for which God has created church—namely to be his people, for His glory, for all eternity in the new heaven and the new earth.

Understanding and Re-establishing the covenant.

1. What is a covenant in the bible? Gen.9:13; 6:18, Isa 28:18

It is a pact, a constitution, a compact. We make a pact or agreement so that we don't argue anymore. It is a settlement between men or between rulers and subjects or between God and man. It is a firmly packed agreement or put together in a solid way. Examples: -

- i) Between men: Abraham and the Amorites- Gen 14:13; Jacob and Laban-Gen 31:44; Joshua and the Gibeonites- Josh 9:6-7,11,15-19. The breaking of this covenant was consequential for Israel under King Saul manifesting under King David.
- ii) Between Monarchs and Subjects-David and the Elders of Israel-2 Sam 5:3; Jere 34:8-18.
- iii) It is an agreement and pledge: Jehoiada and Captains 2 kg11:4; Job 31:1.
- iv) Alliance between David and Jonathan as example between brethren: 1 Sam 18:3 20:8; 23:18. The benefit manifesting for Mephibosheth in 2 Sam 9:1-13.
- v) Covenant of marriage- Pro 2:16-17; Mal 2:14.

2. Between God and man. Alliance of friendship- Ps 25:14-this is an admission into the Lord's secret counsel. It is when God reveals himself to a person in an experiential way. It is to enter into the familiar conversation with the Lord. With signs and pledges-; Gen 9:9-17; Isa 54:10-covenant of peace... of completeness, welfare, safety, contentment in covenant relationship. Jere 33:20,25. -An unbreakable covenant. Noah received the sign and pledge of the rainbow. God made a covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob-Gen15:18; Ex 2:24- A promise to multiply their seed and blessing, authority over the nations.

3. God's promise to institute or establish a new Covenant. Jere 31:31; He has done it between Him and Jesus - Heb. 8:8-12; 10:16-17; 10:9-14. Individuals can also receive Covenants from the Lord for specific assignments- Isaiah 42:6; 49: 8-this is the basis of the New Testament... to inherit the sure mercies of David to have someone rule on the throne forever... for that to happen Jesus must rise from the dead- Isa 55:3; 59:21; Acts 13:34.

This matter is weighty. So, what must we do?

- A. There is Covenant making. Gen 6:18, 9:9,11,17. God confirms a covenant-Gen17:2, 23:5.
- B. There is Covenant keeping- Ps 103:18; Dt 33: 9-10; Ex 32:26-29. Mal 2:5-7.

- C. There is covenant violation. a failure to glorify God and a rebellion against him (1 John 3:4; Rom. 1:18; 3:23; Eph. 4:18); as an offense against God and a violation of his word.

A covenant is an agreement between God and man, an accord whose terms are set by God. In these divine agreements, God binds Himself to sustain, sanctify, and exalt us in return for our commitment to serve Him and keep His commandments.

Our first pledge is our willingness to take upon us the name of Christ in which we are born of God - new creatures, is confirmed by the ordinance of water baptism. The scriptures speak of the new and everlasting covenant. It is the gospel of Jesus Christ. In other words, the doctrines and commandments of the gospel constitute the substance of an everlasting covenant between God and man.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life”

In the covenant path we find a steady supply of gifts and help. “Charity never faileth” (1 Cor. 13:8), love begets love, compassion begets compassion, virtue begets virtue, commitment begets loyalty, and service begets joy.

We are part of a covenant people, a community of faith who encourage, sustain, and minister to one another. The “power of godliness” comes in the person and by the influence of the Holy Ghost. The gift of the Holy Ghost is part of the new and everlasting covenant. It is an essential part of our baptism, the baptism of the Spirit.

It does not mean we do not face the challenges of life but you experience peace no matter what.

It is the Holy Ghost that reveals how you may clear the next seemingly insurmountable hurdle. It is by the Holy Ghost in you that others may feel the pure love of Christ and receive strength to press forward. It is also the Holy Ghost, in His character as the Holy Spirit of Promise, that confirms the validity and efficacy of your covenants and seals God’s promises upon you. Amen.

A PROPHETIC VIEW OF THE YEAR 2025/5785

The Hebraic Calendar has hidden supernatural predictive ability that ancient men for centuries have studied. The Hebrew language has the finger of God in it and often, meanings are lost in English. It is based on the Hebraic patterns, numbers and letters with values that have specific meaning and prophetic meanings for the whole biblical seasons prophetically. And everything God does he does according to the Biblical calendar. Let me draw your attention to the sudden change of seasons from October 2024. The full moon was on September 18, 2024, but the full moon is on the 6th of October 2024 because of a new year beginning from October 4-6, 2024 into 2025 of the Hebraic year of 5785. A year of judgment (justice and righteousness) and final resolution. It has been 4 years of conflict and war from 2019 we have predicted.

Doctrinally in the Fullstature Missions International we teach the feast of the Passover (The Passover speaks of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ to pay for our sins (1 Corinthians 5:7). The feast of the Unleavened bread which is fulfilled in sanctification and holiness of life (1 Cor 5:8). The feast of the first fruits (Rom.8:23, 1 Cor 15 :20,23), The Feast of Pentecost is 50 days after the resurrection (Leviticus 23:15-21; Acts 2:1). On this day, God gave the Holy Spirit to the disciples (Acts 2:4, 38-41). The feast of Trumpets (Lev.23:24; Is 58:1; 1Cor. 15:52). The feast of Atonement dealing with fasting and prayer and total separation unto the Lord (Leviticus 16:10, 21-22. 29-31; Hebrews 9:7 and Acts 27:9). The Feast of Tabernacles is a seven-day feast that represents the establishment of the Kingdom of God on earth. John 7 describes some of the things that Jesus did and taught while He kept the Feast of Tabernacles.

These Old Testament feast pre-figure the coming of Jesus and how these are fulfilled in Him.

The difference between the Roman calendar and the biblical calendar is that one was created by Pope Gregory's XIII and the Hebraic Calendar was created by God Himself operating as the Biblical Calendar.

Last year we spoke prophetically that doors were open for leadership. We did not even know at that time that we would make changes in FMI like it has happened. We also did not know about the exposé of many leaders in Nigeria and overseas to open the way for a new kind of leadership in the church. As we write everything about the world is accelerating for a close but the kingdom of God is a different set of reality.

We should welcome the Holy Spirit for we need Him. In the year 5785 we have 5 repeated two time which double grace. When you deal with the letter HEI in Hebrew we are dealing with the name of the Yahweh. YHVH .

This represents Breath... the breath you breathe

It is also the season of the wind

It also represents ...Word...the living word

It is the season of the Spirit... coming into people's lives...

God wants to sweep through the House of the Lord.

God will minister the Holy Spirit to people if they are desperate and cry out to him.

In the 5785 we have 5000 + 785. The 5000 speaks about the number of people Jesus fed in John's gospel and the number that came to the Lord in the Acts of the apostles.

So this year is the Evangelist's year. This year people will have to understand that there are no unbelievers in hell. The moment everyone crosses into the other side, they will suddenly know or realize that Jesus died for them, but it will be too late to change sides when someone dies. Many of these who might go to hell, would be doctors, lawyers and market women and businessmen and women. When people are saved there is a powerful encircling of the blood of Jesus around them.

When God changed the name Abram to Abraham God added the H and the same with Sara to Sarah. God added an H, that gave the Abraham name and breath sound. There are Abrahamic journeys that will take place in 5785 and the Lord said, do not be afraid. We must leave the familiar behind. We must follow the Lord by faith. The life of faith is a quantum swing from the high to the low. And low to high but we must trust in the living God.

You must be ready to serve the Lord and live by faith.

The life of faith is not resolved on a balanced sheet by a calculator. It is the power of God as fuel in that realm to keep the sons of God going.

God is going to answer many people's questions in this coming year about the confusion in the world. Those who are reading this will be a testimony. Many prophets live their prophecy without even realizing it. The people of the Lord have to understand that things are going to be torn and the past will not be anymore. We are going through a prophetic trajectory towards the anti-Messianic order all around us.

We are an end-time generation. The symptoms are rife indicating we have come to the end of the age. This calls us to BE SPIRITUALLY MINDED... and not to be focused on political solutions to spiritual problems. This is going to be a season of the bear to make all men desperate to cry out. We call the attention of those who are familiar with the stock markets to note.

Insecurities, human failures, unreliable governments, government in perpetuity etc... God people will be crying out for a divine move of God. We have to cry out for power to heal and provide.

Please listen... we are not citizens here... we should be less and less taken over by this world. ... we should desire a better country. Psalms 91 is our prayer... we dwell in the shadow of the almighty. The problem of the world is not your problem. Don't hold the world to your chest. Use the world legitimately, the Lord said, and don't allow the world to use you. Money uses people but Holy Spirit filled people employ creativity to use money. The world is coming under judgment but not the people of God. Their sin is full and overflowing. We must not be so invested here until we forget that we are not citizens here. What looks hard to the people of the world we will go through trusting God in it or through it with power of grace.

The people will realize that our resource is not in man but of God. The Lord said we have a front seat to help other people and pray for the lost. The world will suffer because of conflicts and war. Our suffering as believers in Jesus is how to navigate the new ...over the last several years. It is clear that the Lord is speaking to the church about wisdom and discernment of the Holy Spirit. This is critical for compassion to take root.

In many churches the presence of the Holy Spirit is diminishing, and we need the gifts more than ever before to navigate new paradigms. This power sustains the kingdom of God.

Please read Psalm 91 and read it aloud daily. You have MUST BE LED by the Holy Spirit.. You have to pray in tongues and let your life depend on it. Pray for protection as people fight over food and water.

Angelic activity will be prominent. But the picture locked up in this revelation is to give and receive, divine answers to the earth and prayer.

So, we have the year 5785 which  $5+7+8+5=25$  this is 5 squared. And relates to 2025.. After seasons of meditation in the word and prayer, we receive revelation and creative power for His purposes. 5 is an apostolic number. Pray for His full hand to be revealed.

Pray about conflict in the waters and the air. Amen.

YHVH is the name of the Lord, and you cannot say HEI without breathing out which represents divine breath, the Holy Spirit.

It is a year of the wind and waves of water as foundations are tested. There will be grace for the prayer watch. The voice of the Lord will be calling you to this watch for many will be renewed to call upon the name of the Lord to keep watches. There will be violent winds that clash with waters to bring cyclones and Tsunami that cause change in the nations. Waters will pile up in heaps but wash away the filth. The people of God will have authority to have wisdom to call forth peace and when to call forth the waves to overflow jagged edges. The church will be given power to speak creatively or to speak to creation according to wisdom and will of God. Only the VOICE of God can speak to the waters in line with His will. And Jesus arose and rebuked the wind and the sea “Peace be still” And the wind ceased and there was a great calm.

The Lord will have the church call for water in dry places. Powerful moves of the Spirit breaking forth watering dry place. Be ready to be called suddenly aside, so the Lord can bring clarity and correction. This will help you to enter the right door though it be painful for you.

There is a grace and holiness movement, and this unfolds into the future fully. God is calling many of us to join him in the prayer watch, praying for those hard issues so that many will encounter God. It is also a call to watch over His promises and people during the stormy times, so they will arrive at God destined place (Mark14:22-29). Early morning prayers will be born in many places for fresh revelation and to calm many storms in creation and for outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

We pray the Holy Spirit grant you understanding in all things. Amen.

FULLSTATURE COLLEGE OF THE BIBLE AND MISSIONS

WISDOM TO PREPARE *for the Work with Eternal Benefits for all.

We must think deeply about making Jesus known. He has given us the Holy Spirit, the Bible and many preachers but we need to be trained in our minds on how to be effective for the Lord.

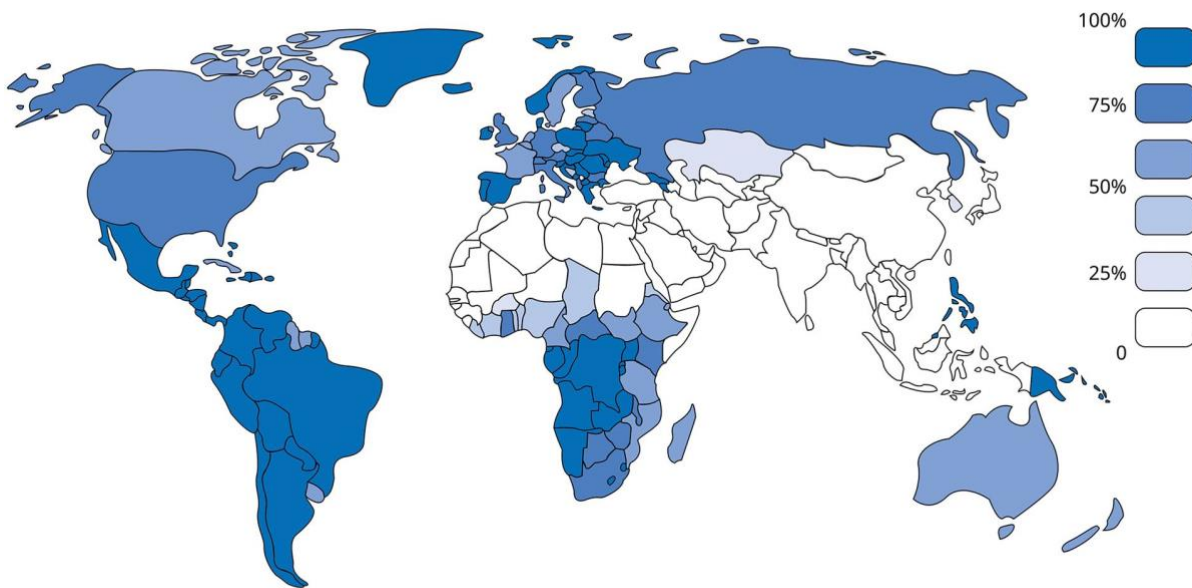

Experience has shown that if we just count on our love and passion to make inroads in the mission field or as pastors or in ministry, we'd likely become burnt out and quit very soon. Instead, God gave us the wisdom to prepare. The interest you expressed at the AWMC24, must remain burning and you have opportunity to be trained.

If you just show up in ministry, hearts full of love for God and eager to make big changes for His Kingdom, you will likely be back home early, burnt out and disappointed.

Instead, God gives us the wisdom to slow down and discover how we could effectively work on His behalf, using the talents, skills, and education He blessed us with.

God cut us out for this work, but we are presently rough and unpolished. Fullstature College of the Bible and Missions (FCBM) will help take out the raw edges, sand out the splinters and prepared you for God to add the varnish, readying us to begin your work. Don't get us wrong we have always been a little unfinished, but God has helped us to help others since 1994. In this work, we will always need to be learning, growing, and adapting.

PROPHETIC PRAYER FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER, 2024

David and others prophesied often in the Psalms about the whole earth experiencing salvation. These were prophecies about the kingdom. David, who was a king, prophesied often about the greater kingdom of his Seed, Christ, the Messiah. Some of those prophecies in the Book of Psalms are shown below:

- “You are My Son ... I will give You the nations for Your inheritance” (Ps. 2:7–8).
- “All the families of the nations shall worship before You” (Ps. 22:27).
- “The earth is the LORD’S” (Ps. 24:1).
- “According to Your name, O God, so is Your praise to the ends of the earth” (Ps. 48:10).
- “You who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth” (Ps. 65:5).
- “All nations whom You have made shall come and worship before you, O Lord” (Ps. 86:10).
- “The nations shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth Your glory” (Ps. 102:15).

- “Be exalted, O God, above the heavens, and Your glory above all the earth” (Ps. 108:5).

The vision of the prophets was always global. The kingdom would not be limited to Israel but would encompass all nations. The scribes and teachers understood this but did not understand how it would be accomplished. It would come through the death of the Messiah, the descent of the Holy Spirit and the preaching of the gospel.

When reading these scriptures there should be no doubt of the plan and purpose of God. This purpose comes through the church, the new-creation people, who will become a global phenomenon. The church could not be limited to Jerusalem. The Book of Acts is the story of the church and kingdom breaking out of the framework of the old covenant and breaking forth throughout the whole earth.

Adopt-A-Missionary- A Missions’ Strategy

<https://www.fullstature.net/adopt-a-missionary>

...a strategy for loving the missionary family as well as the people groups, they serve

Adopt-A-Missionary is a mission strategy that has gained momentum in missions over the years. What makes this strategy different is its focus. Historically, churches have focused on countries, and mission agencies have focused their attention on people groups. Adopt-A- Missionary focuses on missionary families, or what we can call message bearers.

For 5 years, my wife (of blessed memory) and I served as missionary representatives to the Kenyan peoples of East Africa. We divided the nation of Kenya into 6. Working with the missionary on ground we had a plan to evangelise the nation. We raised teams of two by two from Nigeria and planted 6 churches throughout the country. In the last 29 years + the FMI missionary teams have been helped by God to open the gospel among 40 unreached people groups. Our FMC churches faithfully prayed and the missionaries that we served with, and the church has supported them financially.

In 1990 for example, we were relocated to Kano with two major tribes- the Kanawas and Magusawas. We were led of the Lord to pay more attention to tribal missions in 1993, where the gospel has never been heard while maintaining a church base. Thankfully, our churches have continued to pray for and support the mission’s effort with this strategic ministry.

ADOPT-A-Missionary Defined

What then does it mean to Adopt-A-missionary? It means committing yourself as an individual, fellowship group, local congregation, denomination, or mission agency to pray for and commit resources to win souls, establish believers, administrate the work within a specific people group through a missionary family or families. This commitment is continued until the believers in that people group can reach the rest of their people without outside (cross-cultural) assistance.

We are agents of God praying, giving, and serving to see an adopted family reach out to bring sinners into God's family. This is the true meaning of Adopting a missionary family. One day this will be accomplished, and every tribe, tongue, people, and nation will give glory to God around His throne (Rev. 5:9).

Adopt a Missionary Family

Fullstature Missions International is committed to the work of missions and has developed a ministry to bring into focus the Great Commission (Matt 28:19-20) set forth by Christ and to support missionary families need. We ask that your family prayerfully consider adopting a missionary family to be a blessing and to be blessed. After you have made an adoption, we encourage you can send your missionary family an email to share about your family and to ask them to share with you. The FMI becomes a bridge to help people you may never know or meet. You can reach out to the missionary during Holidays, birthdays, or anniversaries or just at any time. Commit to lift your missionary up in prayer. (Phil 6)

It is also our desire to support more missionaries through our ministry budget than we currently can do. The missionaries we support currently are under-supported. In other words, the support we grant is not adequate. In most cases, we are nearly able (with Naira) to provide what will keep body and soul together leaving projects in the field undone. This is where you pause and do something.

It is our goal to ensure that every Missionary, supported through, (what we call) the General Fund which includes the "Faith Promise Offering" (FPO), are missionaries we, as a ministry want to support.

The money these Missionaries receive is totally dependent on what is given by the individual or families who have adopted them.

Example: Missionary "Felix" may have two families in First Baptist Church which chose to adopt him. They do so for a combined support of $200 per month, one for $75 per month and one for $125 per month. Should the family who chose to support Missionary "Felix" for $125 per month be unable to do so for any reason, Missionary "Felix" would only receive $75 for that month. There will be a "shortfall" and the family who was unable to give what they had purposed to give would not be contacted and asked, "Where is your contribution".

If you have a desire to support a Missionary, please feel free to fill out a "Adopt-A-Missionary Request Form" and return it to our ministry office.

Build a Relationship

Develop a relationship with your adopted missionary family. Learn about their ministry and their ups and downs so that you know when to Praise God with them and when to lift them up in prayer. Being a missionary can have very hard times and there is great comfort when a missionary knows that God is always there and that there are people supporting them at every step.

Faith Promise

In addition to your commitment to get to know and pray for your adopted missionary, you may consider supporting your missionary financially. Among some of the greatest difficulties that missionaries face is having their financial needs met. Missionaries typically spend a significant amount of time raising monies to support their ministries which in turn reduces the amount of time out in the field.

Would you prayerfully consider financially committing to a missionary? If you agree please fill out the form below and send separately.

Thank you.

- Pray that He will reveal the original you more and more as you enter another year of your life. (Psa 139:13-15)
- Pray that He will restore the heavenly label, and the heavenly name He gave you before you were conceived. (Jer 1:5).
- Speak into the foundations of your life and prophesy good things.

Thank Jehovah that immediately you were born, you cried out prophetically blowing your own jubilee cornet, and prophetically rejoiced in yourself. Ask Him to give you joy no matter your circumstance, to rejoice on this day.

COMING TO THE STATURE OF THE FULLNESS OF CHRIST

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1

Scripture: Ephesians 1:7

In Ephesians 1:7 we are told, “In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace...” Forgiveness of sin here is af-es-is. It is used for forgiveness, and it is used for remission of sin. This word is translated both as forgiveness and also as remission in different Bible passages. Both concepts naturally develop together. Forgiveness brings freedom from the blame, shame and guilt. Expunging the record of sin through remission promotes confidence as the memory fades into oblivion. The platform for faith now exists to build a future free from fear. A fearless army can now emerge! There is an unfolding progression in scripture concerning this word that will help us understand exactly why we see confidence as the chief fruit. Sonship is a gift that establishes the believer as a functioning member of God’s Family destined to rule. The great commission encourages us to bear rule as citizens of God’s Kingdom. We know Sonship was the origin of Paul’s confidence and freedom to rule. Tracing this process in Scripture will establish us in confidence for our assignment.

We must pray for this confidence as manifest in Acts 4:13.( παρρησία -parrhesia- pronounced- par-rhay-see’-ah- it is boldness in the spirit, it is a spirit of prophetic utterance with boldness- freedom in speaking, unreservedness in speech.

1a) openly, frankly, i.e without concealment

1b) without ambiguity or circumlocution

1c) without the use of figures and comparisons

2) free and fearless confidence, cheerful courage, boldness, assurance

3) the deportment by which one becomes conspicuous or secures publicity

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2

Scripture: Ephesians 1:7

Ephesians 1:7 says, Forgiveness has a qualifier. Here we come into contact with another Greek word that appears in twelve of the seventeen uses of af-es-is. That is the Greek word ha-mar-tia. This means, ‘sin or an offense in relationship to God with emphasis on guilt.’ The majority of the usage of af-es-is is forgiveness or remission. It is over the issue of the sin of Adam that brought man into slavery as a condition. The addition of ha-mar-tia implies the culmination of a process of deliverance from which even the record is expunged. This should help us understand why redemption is in the seventh position as a Sonship gift. The process of being declared blameless culminates in the knowing that our sin and mistakes are utterly gone through gift seven, redemption, even to the point of no record in God's eyes. It makes the culmination of the process a complete transformation which is guaranteed by the Blood of Christ producing a new creation. Ephesians 1 brings the transformation process into a divine reality of God's declaration that we are a new creation, as 2 Corinthians 5:17 states, "If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold all things become new." The Amplified AMPC puts it this way, "Therefore if any person is ingrafted in Christ, the Messiah, he is a new creation (a new creature altogether); the old (precious moral and spiritual condition) has passed away. Behold the fresh and new has come." We are born out of slavery to sin into freedom from sin! The declaration of remission finishes the process of redemption which is why it follows Sonship Gift number six, the blotting out of the transgression—it no longer exists! This is precisely what elevated Paul to his calling and destiny. Due to his depth of understanding of the Sonship truths God gave Paul the privilege of communicating the life-changing truth of the Epistles which became a pathway to radical change for all believers including us. Confidence before God is the fruit!

Paul lived the rest of his life in this realm. Let's consider the depth and fruitfulness of the treasure Paul produced. He was God's scribe for much of the New Testament. It is time we lay hold of such anointed confidence toward our own personal destiny in Christ!

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3

Scripture: Romans 5:12-14

In Romans 5:12-14 our condition is described as , "Therefore, just as through one man sin entered the world, and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned—For until the law sin was in the world, but sin is not imputed when there is no law. Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned according to the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is a type of Him who was to come." The process of salvation is a process whereby we first identify our condition as prisoners of sin. We are born in sin and sin rules. That is where the five giants come from found in Numbers 13 and Isaiah 14. That describes the fall of our enemy, the former worship leader of heaven. The five 'I wills' are the five giants that rule our life until we say 'yes' to Jesus Christ. The reason af-es-is and har-mar-tia are joined together twelve times in the New Testament is that these two words describe the process of how we were incarcerated by sin and then move into freedom. Only the death of Christ and His resurrection could break the bondage of sin and erase all record it. We learn that we were in prison through the sin of Adam but in Christ the prison doors are open. Christ creates a new nature in us and promptly erase all record of failure fostering fearlessness and confidence as sons and daughters of the King!

Similarly, when the spirit of man is presented to the Lord, it absorbs spiritual light from the Lord God who is the source of light because He is a sun (Ps 84:11a; Mal 4:2a) then he emits the light absorbed in the realm of the spirit to give light to the world that is full of darkness. The more the light you receive from the word, the brighter you will shine.

DECLARE YOU ARE NOT UNDER THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SUN, THE MOON AND THE STARS. PROCLAIM THAT YOU HAVE THROUGH CHRIST ATTAINED AND acquired GOD's ordained knowledge for the heavens, AND you proceed to set up their dominion here on earth (Job 38:31-33) The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night (Ps 121:6). But I am the LORD thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name. And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people. (Isaiah 51:15-16).

Once we acquire GOD's ordained knowledge for the heavens, we will be able to set up their dominion here on earth (Job 38:31-33). Pray that during the full moon, the moon will not strike you in an untoward manner, but it shall yield its best for you. Pray this for the Ecclesia and your territory.

In this season when the heavens speak of redemption preceding judgment, pray that those who are prone to worship of the moon will begin to sense the One who created the full moon

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 4

Scripture: Luke 4:18

Luke 4:18 says, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, Because He has anointed Me To preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted , To proclaim liberty (af-es-is) to the captives And recovery of sight to the blind, To set at liberty (af-es-is) those who are oppressed;...” Jesus declared His purpose twice as He quoted Isaiah 61:1-2. His purpose was to set us free, to deliver us from the bondage of a life of sin. This process starts with recognition that we were in a prison we could not get out of, that we were in prison due to what Adam chose. Adam’s choice to disobey God tainted mankind and imprisoned us to sin. Christ came in order to break the power of that prison. We are not just being delivered we are being recreated in order to be totally free from the power of sin. That demands a rebirth. Jesus paid the price not just for forgiveness but He paid the price to recreate us according to His original purpose. To understand that culmination we have to back up and then trace the process.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Scripture: Luke 4

An interesting part of Luke 4 is that Jesus said He was anointed to preach deliverance, but it doesn’t say what we were delivered from. He was anointed to bring freedom from captivity but it doesn’t identify the captivity. Af-es-is is a picture of the culmination of a process whereby we are delivered from the very nature of sin itself so that it no longer reigns over us. The work of Christ therefore is designated as deliverance from everything that holds man prisoner away from God. Setting a sinful man free would be very dangerous without God simultaneously changing that man’s nature.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 5:17-21

2 Corinthians 5:17-21 says, “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation. Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ’s behalf, be reconciled to God. For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.” It is obvious that af-es-is sets us free from being a prisoner to the old man by creating our new man in the image and likeness of Jesus Christ. In Christ, He commits to us the Word of reconciliation. Man’s freedom is not one that permits us to continue in sin but binds us to Christ. What Christ does will not simply take us from prison but set us free from sin itself, giving us power over sin. God makes us completely victorious!

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7

Scripture: John 3:1-12

John 3:1-12 records Jesus' interaction with Nicodemus. Nicodemus was a teacher of Israel and the Lord was explaining to His disciples the necessity of being born again with Christ, going down in the water of baptism and coming up as a new creation, a resurrected, born-again, spirit man who was then completely freed from sin. Sin no longer has dominion over us anymore. Deep within our heart we have the right and privilege to identify with Christ as completely and totally free from sin and we do not have to obey desires of the flesh if we choose to follow the Spirit. That is a choice which every one of us has in Christ. We have the freedom to choose! A pathway is opened to freedom and victory for every one of us in Christ!

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8

Scripture: Romans 3:17-18

In Romans 3:17-18 we see the fruit of af-es-is. This passage says, "But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine to which you were delivered. And having been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness." When we experience remission of sin we see the transformation of a new birth with the freedom to choose God and reign in life through Jesus Christ. Suddenly there is glory in this pathway and process which brings us to the wiping away of the record.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9

Scripture: Colossians 1:14

This passage is unique because it is almost identical to Ephesians 1:7. We see the Lord is making the identical statement and the identical progression that He did in Ephesians 1. Colossians 1:14 says, "... in whom we have redemption (af-es-is) through His blood, the forgiveness of sins." What is the issue here? What we are seeing here is the focus on the completing of a process. The final act of this process is the remission or the expunging of record. This is the removal of all record of any wrong of anything committed by the old man. We understand now why redemption is placed in this order in Ephesians. It completes the launching from our past life and self-image exchanging that for the confidence of the New Testament believer once we accept the fact that there is no more record of sin. That past record is totally, completely wiped away, expunged! What do we as believers look like when we agree and set our faith on what the Scripture says about the process, and embrace the fact that the record is expunged? There is no more record of sin. What does the believer look like who experiences Ephesians 1:7 and Colossians 1:14 accepted by faith, maintained through intimacy and relationship? That believer has been assigned the grace to fulfill a powerful destiny complete with the potential to look like Paul. We look like saints qualified to arise to our calling and participate in the winding up of the age.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 10

Scripture: Acts 20:25-27

This passage says, “And indeed, now I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more. Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to declare to you the whole counsel of God.” In this account Paul was saying farewell to the Ephesian elders and he was telling them his condition, position and stance before God. He declared that his hands were innocent of the blood of all men. There was no record in heaven of his participation in the murder of Stephen. Gone, wiped away...that was another man. Paul was released to walk in complete and total freedom because of a process. And through God’s messages to us via Paul’s New Testament Epistles, God is shining His light on the way toward freedom for all of us. We are not only free from sin, but we are now no longer the guilty party. The guilty party was our old man. God has transformed us into a new person, now guiltless before God! If Paul can say that, why can’t you and I say that. It should be a key component in walking and living as sons and daughters of our mighty God! The question should be not, can I say that but will I say that.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11

Scripture: Acts 23:1-3

The Apostle Paul stood before the Sanhedrin and was called into account to present his case. This passage says, “Then Paul, looking earnestly at the council, said, ‘Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.’ And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. Then Paul said to him, ‘God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! For you sit to judge me according to the law, and do you command me to be struck contrary to the law?’” Isn’t it interesting to see that the Apostle Paul declared that He had lived in all good conscience before God until that day! We are studying the man who wrote the book of Ephesians and outlined our Gifts as sons of God. He wrote and articulated rich truths throughout the epistles because that was his own personal testimony!

Crescents and Quarter Moons

When the moon is shaped like a C or its mirror image (Sickle), it is considered a crescent moon. The quarter moon is shaped like a D or its mirror image and considered to be a bow. The occult will use the bow shaped moon to shoot arrows of wickedness to the unsuspecting in order to draw unfair advantage in various areas of life. The occult uses the crescent moon as sickles (e.g. Hecate's sickle), for harvesting the gains of the ignorant and for demonic strength and fortification with intense enchantments.

- Proclaim Psalm 148 and Command all creation especially the crescent and Quarter moons to praise GOD as instructed in Psalm 19.

- Proclaim Psalm 64 and fasten that judgment into the heavens.

- Proclaim Isa 26:1-9 and command the heavens to receive this instruction and reject every other voice of destruction; For strength and fortification "Trust in the LORD forever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength". Isa 26:4

- GOD abhors enchantment so He warned His people not to be involved in enchantment. (Lev 19:26b). Pray that the occult, involved in intense enchantment will equally and certainly face the fierce wrath of GOD. Is 13:9

- Lunar Events (These are periods when evil manipulators of nature invoke anxiety and make some become lunatic). The Last Quarter Moon will occur on October 12 02:03 UTC and The First Quarter moon will occur on October 27 11:22 UTC. The quarter - D shaped moon or its mirror image is used as a bow.

- Pray that the quarter moons will praise the LORD in their season and listen only to His bidding.

- Pray that during the waxing quarter moon, the LORD's covenant portion for kingdom citizens in this season will wax with the quarter moon.

- Pray that during the waning quarter moon, there will be manifest, a release of the covenant portion of the LORD for Kingdom citizens in the territory.

- The kingdom of darkness uses the bow-shaped moon to shoot arrows of confusion, death and destruction at the ignorant. Proclaim Psa 64 over every arrow of the enemy, whether they are spiritual arrows, words, etc.

Proclaim Psalm 91 during the quarter moons. Thank the LORD that He breaks the bows of the wicked and turn their arrows back to sender to destroy them in their own devises (Sam 2:1-4)

The occult often uses the crescent moon as Hecate's sickle for harvesting the gains of the righteous who are ignorant. Hecate was a Greek goddess that was worshiped as the goddess of the moon, the night, dogs, sorcery, and ghosts. Hecate was often depicted as the guardian of doorways or crossroads.

This is also the time when they increase their enchantments, for strength and fortification.

For all those that handle the sickle at the time of harvest for unjust gains, pray that Jehovah will send His fishers to fish them out of their hideouts and hunters to hunt them for destruction Jere 16:16, Rev 14:14-20.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 4:1-5, Acts 23:1

1 Corinthians 4:1-5 says, "Let a man so consider us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by a human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this; but He who judges me is the Lord. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each one's praise will come from God." Paul is relating the fruit of the Sonship Gifts, especially regarding the fruit of redemption. Af-es-is. "For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this; but He who judges me is the Lord. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each one's praise will come from God." Wow! "I know nothing against myself." That is a confident statement! Paul had the assurance that the past record of wrongdoings was as a non-existent thing. After Paul had his dramatic encounter with Christ, he became a new creation and he began to live a fearless life as he accepted his Sonship gifts. The gift of redemption is apparent in these bold statements from both Acts and 1 Corinthians and clearly affirm his freedom. Because Paul was a new creation he walked with confidence and fearlessness, therefore he could do anything through Christ who provided strength. Are we going to follow his example and arise to this freedom?

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Scripture: 2 Timothy 1:3

2 Timothy 1:3 says, “I thank God, whom I serve with a pure conscience, as my forefathers did, as without ceasing I remember you in my prayers night and day...” Here we see another declaration of Paul who had accepted his Sonship gifts and declared it. Paul’s bold statements should build a pathway for us of our own potential freedom in Christ. This freedom has already been purchased through His Blood! “Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.”

Saints, why would we ever let the enemy take us back into bondage when Christ has said, “Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.” Let us move out of bondage with an awareness of the reality that the past record of wrongdoings is a non-existent thing. Let’s choose to walk in the quality of freedom that Paul knew and walk our path with the same confidence. Let’s continually say, ‘I am a son and daughter of the Most High God and He has declared me free. I’ve been set free from the prison of sin. I can rule over it and I can do anything God asks me to do!’ We truly are a people delivered, set free and ready to serve the King of kings! When Jesus arose from the dead, the Father declared Him Savior and Judge. Some may ask what if I mess up and sin? Does that disqualify me? Certainly not! In that event we must, though, do as King David did. We must quickly turn, fully repent and arise and position ourselves again in Him. God will never turn away the truly repentant!

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14

Scripture: John 20:19-23, Revelation 11:6

John 20:19-23 says, “Then, the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’ When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. So Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you.’ And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”” Isn’t it interesting that when Jesus ministered the Holy Spirit to His disciples He made this declaration. What is being established here? The beginning of judgment is being established by the authority to retain sin. Most of us have never heard a message on retaining sin. There is only one reason why we would retain sin. The goal is repentance. The way that God deals with man throughout the Bible from Genesis to Revelation is consistent. God doesn’t desire mankind’s destruction. He desires man’s repentance. Over and over again God will ramp up affliction from one level after another until man repents. Affliction has to be discerned. The devil also afflicts to destroy. God afflicts to save. God’s goal is repentance leading to salvation. The foundation for that is the retaining of sin. In the retaining of sin, we maintain our authority to execute the judicial anointing of Christ which has the potential for salvation. That is one of the reasons why authority is given to every mature, prepared believer. God doesn't leave us on our own in assigning us authority. He gives us the Holy Spirit to lead us in taking appropriate action. If we are going to move in this realm we better really develop our relationship with the Holy Spirit. His leading is absolutely essential in guiding us to apply judicial authority. We won't be able to walk confidently in the last days without it. The Bible is very clear on this! The question is, are we willing to grow into this? Walking in the freedom of our redemption and forgiveness is an important part of it! It will bring us into the maturity to hear the Father and in obedience to represent Him. In Revelation 11:6 all the witnesses pray affliction in an attempt to save by gaining repentance. The anointing to afflict is in our future if we are living in the anointed confidence as God's son!

Scripture: Luke 17:1-4

Why did Jesus give us the power to either retain sin or forgive sin? It is because we have little chance of gaining repentance without it. With repentance we know that we can forgive sin. Luke 17:1-4 says, "Then He said to the disciples, 'It is impossible that no offenses should come, but woe to him through whom they do come! It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. Take heed to yourselves. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day returns to you, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him.'"" Luke 17 is the parallel passage to Matthew 18. Matthew 18 identifies steps of confrontation. A lack of repentance, after confrontation, forces us to retain sin. A brother gained through repentance is the goal. So then when it comes to two or three agreeing touching anything that they ask, affliction is the means to gain repentance. The reason af-es-is and har-mar-tia are joined together 12 times in the New Testament is that these two words describe the process of how we were incarcerated by sin, sin that only the death of Christ and His resurrection could break as we accept Him and have died with Him. The agreement would be for affliction, turning another over to satan for the destruction of their flesh. The apostles did that and they did it when there was no repentance. When the Holy Spirit guides us to withhold repentance it is for the benefit, not the detriment of the offender. This is the process and this opportunity offers a possible open door to repentance. That is a grace-gift on God's part in order to give the perpetrator further opportunities to turn toward salvation. How much affliction will it take to break the bondage? One of the saddest scriptures in the Bible is at the end of Revelation. This tells us of God ramping up affliction on earth through all sorts of devastating judgments, all for the opportunity to open hearts to salvation. It is stunning to read through these various levels of adversity that are poured out. Revelation 16:8-9 says, . “Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and power was given to him to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who has power over these plagues; and they did not repent and give Him glory.” The phrase “They did not repent and give Him glory” should make us tremble. It shows us the dimension of hardness of heart that we are going to encounter in the last days. God ramps up the affliction until it includes termination. One would think that facing that kind of terror would produce quick repentance, but it does not when hearts are hardened.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16

Scripture: Psalm 78:32-36

This verse is very interesting concerning people who have previously known God. Psalm 78:32-36 says, “In spite of this they still sinned, And did not believe in His wondrous works. Therefore their days He consumed in futility, And their years in fear. When He slew them, then they sought Him; And they returned and sought earnestly for God. Then they remembered that God was their rock, And the Most High God their Redeemer. Nevertheless they flattered Him with their mouth, And they lied to Him with their tongue;...” Let’s remember that this is about His Own people, those very ones He established His covenant with. This is Israel, the very people who witnessed His wondrous signs in Egypt. This should make us think about preparing for the days ahead. Nothing restores the fear of the Lord like death or impending death. Perhaps this is why tares are removed first! Is it going to take that in order to restore the fear of the Lord? Their demise restores. If so, is this God’s purpose for Isaiah 11:4? It says, “The breath of your lips will slay the wicked.” Will we continue to avoid the God manner of training that includes judgment. Hebrews 12:11 says, “Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; afterwards it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.” Affliction and termination appear to be inevitable as part of our future! Can we purpose to follow the Spirit just like the believers in the book of Acts? God restored the fear of the Lord by slaying Ananias and Sapphira.

Will we be ready to walk in that dimension in the last days? Let’s hope we don’t have to. Let’s trust that as we walk through our Sonship Gifts we will stay on the pathway of obedience and purity and be ready to demonstrate the fullness of Christ as the Spirit wills.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Scripture: Psalm 149:7-9

In Psalm 149:7-9 we read, “Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, And a two-edged sword in their hand, To execute vengeance on the nations, And punishments on the peoples; To bind their kings with chains, And their nobles with fetters of iron; To execute on them the written judgment—This honor have all His saints.” Are there any written judgments concerning righteousness and salvation? Yes, there are plenty. There are many written judgments. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you shall be saved and your whole household. This promise is written in the book of Acts.

There are many written judgments concerning salvation, deliverance and blessing. We can major on those and we should be declaring them in order to save people such as family members, our kids and grandkids. It is an honor to put the saving, delivering freedom scriptures in our mouths and declare them. There are many judgments of God that produce salvation. We often think of judgment in negative terms against ourselves or others, but the truth is that there are different forms of judgment. Some of the judgments we have a right to declare are against poverty, sickness or perhaps against bondage or against generational curses. We must view judgment circumspectly. There are just as many judgments which declare salvation as there are those proclaiming destruction. Yes, there are those that produce deliverance. There are both salvation and deliverance judgments found in Scripture, and they belong in our mouth. It is an honor to declare them over family and friends. Isaiah 26:9 says it well, “For when your judgments are in the earth The inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.”

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 18

Scripture: Romans 12:19, Hebrews 10:1-7

This verse in Romans says, “Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath; for it is written, ‘Vengeance is Mine, I will repay,’ says the Lord.” What if we pray af-es-is and the scriptures where it appears as God’s judgment of freedom over the life of a loved one who is not yet walking there? By doing this we are then declaring God’s salvation for a person and judgment on the bondage that has held them captive. When we are dealing with kids or grandkids, this is a judgment well worth praying that will be eternally fruitful. It is a biblical principle that can be prayed as a judgment leading them to fullness of life and blessing. The Bible is clear about covenant from Genesis to Revelation and af-es-is refers to a covenant blessing Blood-bought and secure! Declaring it over our loved ones is our heritage.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Scripture: Hebrews 10:8-10

Hebrews 10:8-10 says, “Sacrifice and offering, burnt offerings, and offerings for sin You did not desire, nor had pleasure in them” (which are offered according to the law), then He said, “Behold, I have come to do Your will, O God.” He takes away the first that He may establish the second. By that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.” ‘Father, in the name of Jesus we have a covenant, a New Covenant based on better promises and verses 8-10 describe the essence of that New Covenant. That essence is that our kids and grandkids are sanctified through the offering of the Body of Jesus. That core truth we can personalise in behalf of our generations. We can declare that they are released from the dictates of their flesh to do Your will, O God.’ By praying and declaring this passage as a judgment on the flesh, we war against disobedience and selfish ambition and birth surrender to the Spirit. This is warring judicially and invites salvation to overwhelm the person.

(Isaiah 51:15-16).

For any army to win a war, they will ensure their air-force is in place. Whether it is simple Calvary in ancient times, or soldiers positioned on the city walls, or on high hills or elevated places, these have the best view of the battle. For you to overcome the enemy in this spring season, ensure that the heavens are in agreement with you. Speak to the heavens over the month and ask them to declare the glory of Jehovah. Command the sun, moon, stars and every heavenly being to do Jehovah's bidding.

Pray into the womb of every single day of this month, that daily, you will experience a quantum leap, a quick and sudden promotion in your life, spiritual growth and perception of things. Pray this also for your friends, family and church. Isa 51:16 .

Pray through Revelation 22:2; you and the Body of Yeshua at large, will receive the fruit from the tree of life for the 9th month.

Pray that every healing which you require in your body, soul and spirit, in your finances, your family and relationships will be released to you as you partake of the virtues released in the leaves that are for the healing of nations this month.

GOD created the heavens and gave them their role in creation – to determine the times and seasons on earth (Gen 1:14-18). It is a must for every kingdom citizen to study and understand the heavens and know our role as stewards of His estate toward them – not the Ungodly astrology, horoscope and other occult practices.

Once we acquire GOD's ordained knowledge for the heavens, we will be able to set up their dominion here on earth (Job 38:31-33). Remember that in Matthew 28:18-20 Jesus commissioned the fledgling Ecclesia with all the authority given to Him to go out into all nations and disciple them. This authority included that which is in heaven and on earth. It is our duty to answer in the affirmative, the question that Job was asked concerning the visible firmament in Job 38:31-33.

The New Moon will occur on November 20, 05:40 UTC. The daily physical shape of the moon in the sky determines the difference between the sickles and the bows.

- Enter the gates of this month with thanksgiving for all that the LORD has allowed you to experience in the past season.
- Command the gates of that day to be lifted up unto the LORD for the King of glory to go in and for His purposes alone to be accomplished. Ps 24:7-10
- Declare the Shalom of the LORD at every gate of this new season. The gates of this season will be gates of righteousness and praise and the walls salvation. Wherever the man of peace shall be, the peace of Jehovah will rest upon them. Wherever there shall be a man of violence, they shall be judged in this strong season of judgement and retribution, Psalm 118:12, Isa 60:18-20, Rev 4:11
- Read Isa 33:22 and bring any area of justice e.g. court cases, family feuds, village disputes, and land or business disputes before the LORD. Remind yourself that beyond the human justice structures whether councils of elders, judges, or tribunals, He remains our Judge, our Lawgiver and our King and Isaiah reminds you that He will save you.

There have been activities in the nations which begun a season of widespread judgement. It has resulted in generalized disorder, disorganization, imperfection, and disintegration in especially in the economic gate of society. After this, Jehovah will reshuffle, reorganize, restructure, rearrange, and reorder those gates to create an environment for them to align with His purposes, which have been planned for this season and favors kingdom citizens economically. Jer 29:11, Eccl 2.26.

- Pray Psalm 61-63. When you are overwhelmed, may the LORD be your Refuge. Pray this for the Ecclesia in the territory.
- Pray that in this season of judgement you will be a sharpened arrow which the LORD can shoot forth and you will land on target Psa 127:3-5
- Pray through Isaiah 28:5-6. If you will become an instrument of justice and judgement in this season, remember that it is the prerogative of the kings to deal with such matters. Ask for a kingly anointing to carry out this activity. Ask the LORD to be your glorious crown in your capacity as a kingly priest. Also ask the LORD to be your fear and to all brethren who sit in judgment and a source of strength as you turn the battle at the gates.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Scripture: Hebrews 10:11-13, Matthew 12:20

Let's look at how this passage builds on itself in divine, judicial authority. Hebrews 10:11-13 says, "And every priest stands ministering daily and offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God, from that time waiting till His enemies are made His footstool.” The purpose of Christ’s victory over death, hell and the grave was to empower us to be victorious and to rule. Let’s pray God’s rulership over our kids and grandkids. Jesus is waiting for us to make His enemies His footstool. We do that by judicially declaring His Word. Sometimes the judicial application of His Word is salvation! It is real and it is to bring about blessing! We see it right here in Hebrews, especially this chapter. Jesus took judgment to victory in Matthew 12:20, and He is encouraging us to pray the victory of His Word!

Scripture: Hebrews 10:14-18

In Hebrews 10:14-18 we are told, “For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. But the Holy Spirit also witnesses to us; for after He had said before, ‘This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them,’ then He adds, ‘Their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more.’ Now where there is remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.” Here is complete forgiveness, the expunging of the record! Here is the second element of af-es-is.

“Their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more..” How many times do we have to repeat this biblical truth before we choose to believe it? The accepting of forgiveness is the gift that moves us into maturity and confidence.

When we experience Christ we receive the gift of being chosen, holy and blameless as the initial building blocks in the transformation process! The Apostle Paul declared the fruit of his identity as a son viewed as two pillars.

The first pillar is threefold, chosen, holy and without blame upon which our Christian identity is established.

The second pillar seals our official family-adopted status. Adoption rests on accepted, redeemed and forgiven. God knew what was needed to solidify Sonship. Blame, shame and guilt could not stand before the truth of God’s redemption, a solid rock, a sure foundation. And here we see it stated seventeen times as remission, the expunging of the record. Wow!

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22

Scripture: Hebrews 9:18-26

In Hebrews 9:18-26 we are told that without the shedding of blood there is no remission. Christ Himself shed His Blood and presented His Blood in the Heavenly Temple. He offered once for all to put away sin with the sacrifice of Himself. This is a completed work and it enables us to pray, ‘Father in Jesus’ name we declare Your judgment, the putting away of sin, through the shedding of Christ’s Blood over our family, including every child and grandchild. They are free to serve You, O Living God. Let that freedom come in Jesus’ name. Make them the head and not the tail, above and not beneath. Let no weapon formed against them prosper. Make them free to serve You, our Mighty God in Jesus’ name! Bring them into the quality of freedom which will open the door to intimacy, full obedience and commitment to their destiny!’

It is in Hebrews 10: 18. Now where there is remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.” These words are God’s provision for a glorious walk. We can pray this over our kids and grandkids, in Jesus’ name. This is a judgment declaration we can make concerning them in prayer. ‘Lord we declare that remission has come on them, in Jesus name. They are living like it and acting like it. In Jesus’ name, their hearts are open, prepared and established for You, God to write Your Word on! They are free, in Jesus’ name!’

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23

Scripture: Colossians 1:10-14, Psalm 149

Colossians 1:10-14 is a powerful judicial passage to bring before the Lord. We could pray it this way, ‘Father, this judgment is written over my loved ones. Cause them to walk a walk worthy of all pleasing unto You being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God, strengthened with all might according to Your glorious power for all patience and longsuffering with joy; giving thanks to You who have qualified each to be partakers of Your inheritance of the saints in light. I declare that You have delivered them from the power of darkness and translated them into the Kingdom of Your Son Jesus in whom they have redemption through the Blood of Christ. That remission of sin becomes real to them so that sin no longer has any hold over them and is no longer a memory in their life. It is now expunged from the record and they are free to serve You O Living God, free to birth all promises You put in their spirits.’

These are powerful prayers in the follow up process.

This is the quality of judicial intercession that will make a difference in the lives of others because we are going after deceptive spirits of the enemy and we are praying the judgment written binding their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron – Ps 149.

We are guaranteeing their future covenantally by the Blood of the Lamb. This is a positive judicial, pastoral prayer that invites freedom. This is a prayer that we have an honor to pray.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24

Scripture: Ephesians 1:4-7

This passage could be prayed this way. ‘Father, in Jesus’ name I declare that it is written, my loved ones have been chosen before the foundation of the world that they should be holy and without blame before You in love, having predestined them to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to the good pleasure of Your will to the praise of the glory of Your grace by which You made them accepted in the Beloved. We are declaring that in You they have redemption through Christ’s Blood and the remission of sins. Those sins are completely blotted out. Each one is no longer ruled by blame, shame and guilt. I proclaim their freedom to serve You the Living God! Alleluia!’ We need to be using the weapons that God has given! It is written, it is written...it is written! This is one of the best ways we can possibly pray! This will bring positive results over our generations! We need to employ the high praises mentioned in Psalm 149 and be aware that the words of our mouth express the two-edged sword of God’s Word. God will beautify the humble with salvation. This includes salvation for the next generation!

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25

Scripture: Acts 26:17-18

We can pray Acts 26:17-18 and ask God to visit anyone in our life that we are concerned about and to visit them like He visited Paul in Acts. We can hold these words of Paul from Acts 26 before the Lord. “I will deliver you from the Jewish people, as well as from the Gentiles, to whom I now send you, to open their eyes, in order to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in Me.” ‘Father, open the eyes of family members and turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of satan to You. Do this that they may receive forgiveness, remission complete with the full blotting out of sin among all those who are sanctified by faith in You. God, that is Your purpose for every single person. You are not willing that any should perish but that all should be saved. So, Lord, we pray in Jesus’ name that You would visit our kids and our grandkids and that You would usher them into full freedom. Lord, visit with grace and remission those who are walking contrary to You turning them to Your path of obedience! Visit them like you visited Paul turn them from darkness to light. Release them into their divine purpose and call that You gave them before the foundations of the earth. They are chosen to serve you! Holy Spirit, go now and make it happen in Jesus' name.'

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26

Scripture: Acts 13:38-39

If we pray Acts 13:38-39 we would declare, 'Father, I bring before You my family member. Let it be known to them and their friends that through Jesus there is the remission of sin that through Him everyone one who believes is justified from all things from which they cannot be justified, by the law of Moses. Lord, there is no other name given under heaven whereby men must be saved. In Jesus' name we pray Your visitation and Your revelation of the fullness of that name over our family members. It is Your written judgment and we declare it over them. Now bring them into the full freedom of it. Let Your blessing be on them. Let them discover their calling, their gifting that was given before the foundation of the earth. Let each one know that they were chosen. Give them the revelation that they are holy and blameless. In Jesus' name, bring to pass what You have spoken!'

- Pray that during the waning quarter moon, there will be manifest, a release of the covenant portion of the LORD for Kingdom citizens in the territory.

- The kingdom of darkness uses the bow-shaped moon to shoot arrows of confusion, death and destruction at the ignorant. Proclaim Psa 64 over every arrow of the enemy, whether they are spiritual arrows, words, etc. Proclaim Psalm 91 during the quarter moons. Thank the LORD that He breaks the bows of the wicked and turn their arrows back to sender to destroy them in their own devises (Sam 2:1-4)

The occult often uses the crescent moon as Hecate's sickle for harvesting the gains of the righteous who are ignorant. Hecate was a Greek goddess that was worshiped as the goddess of the moon, the night, dogs, sorcery, and ghosts. Hecate was often depicted as the guardian of doorways or crossroads.

This is also the time when they increase their enchantments, for strength and fortification. For all those that handle the sickle at the time of harvest for unjust gains, pray that Jehovah will send His fishers to fish them out of their hideouts and hunters to hunt them for destruction Jere 16:16, Rev 14:14-20.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27

Scripture: Acts 10:40-43

Acts 10:40-43 says, "Him God raised up on the third day, and showed Him openly, not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by God, even to us who ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead. And He commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is He who was ordained by God to be Judge of the living and the dead. To Him all the prophets witness that, through His name, whoever believes in Him will receive remission of sins."

‘Father this is written for our children. Lord, execute it today. Bring this remission forth in their life. Let the revelation of Who You are and what You want to do in them become real. Raise them up as only You can to be Your witnesses in the days ahead. We declare the fullness of what You bought and paid for over their lives, in Jesus’ name.’

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28

Scripture: Ephesians 1:18-23

We should pray Ephesians 1:18-23 and call it forth over our loved ones and over ourselves. This passage is power-packed and it says, “The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come....they are His Body the fullness of Him who fills all in all.” There is strength and might in these words. We need to be praying this over everyone who is close to us. Praying this is praying a covenantal blessing. The Word is eternal and by praying God’s Word we are executing the judgment written!

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29

Scripture: Ephesians 3:14-19

Let’s include Paul’s prayer in Ephesians 3:14-19 in our arsenal! This prayer says, “For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height—to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.”

Here is a dynamite prayer inviting the will of God and the moving of the Holy Spirit in hearts and lives, a perfect prayer for declaring the judgment written. This honour have, all His saints. It is time we start honouring the Word and proclaim God’s purpose as it is revealed in Scripture! It is positive, it is eternal. With each additional declaration, their path will shine brighter and brighter unto the perfect day.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30

Ephesians 4:12-16

‘Father, it is written in Ephesians 4:12-16 that You have given gifts, “...for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ—from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.”’ Let’s include this Ephesians passage in our prayers. When we do so, we are praying the judgment written. We need boldness to march forward in this quality of judicial prayer. God’s Word never returns void! Prayers such as these will help us stand confidently in faith for God’s answers!

The Story of Jonah

THE FIRST JAWS

J.T.C.

It is said that in the early 1900's, a British sailor, trying to harpoon a gigantic shark, slipped and fell overboard.*

*Jonah and Micah (Through the Bible, Vol. 29) by J. Vernon McGee (1979), p. 41.

The Assyrian capital, Nineveh, was called "The Robber City." It was built like a huge fortress.

Because of its wickedness, God marked it for judgment and destruction.

Jonah heard a command from God that made his blood turn cold.

Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it: for their wickedness is come up before me.

Page 5

Jonah wasn't about to warn the Ninevites. He wanted them dead!

He knew if they repented, God would forgive them. He decided to run from God.

Instead of going east to Nineveh like God said, Jonah went west.

He caught a ship headed for Tarshish in southern Spain.

Page 6

Once on board, Jonah thought he had it made. He was sure the Ninevites would be destroyed.

“But the Lord sent out a great wind into the sea... so that the ship was like to be broken.”

Page 7

The terrified sailors cried to their gods, and threw the cargo into the sea to lighten the ship.

But Jonah was asleep below deck.

Why didn't he call on his God?
They asked him who he was.

Jonah explained he was running from God.

Page 8

They asked Jonah what they should do.

The harder they rowed, the more the storm increased. It was useless.

They begged God to forgive them for what they were going to do.

“So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging.” (Jonah 1:15)

Page 9

“Then the men feared the Lord exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the Lord, and made vows.”*

*Jonah 1:16

Jonah was rebellious... and God didn't let him get away with it.

Page 10

“Now the Lord had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah.”

“And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.” (Jonah 1:17)

In terror, Jonah prayed.

Page 11

Jonah was being taken back towards Nineveh... the hard way!

In faith, Jonah believed that God would get him out of this, and that he would again see God's temple.

Jonah was in a mess. Seaweed was wrapped around his head. He was in a type of hell.

As they approached dry land, the fish prepared to get rid of Jonah.

Page 14

Jonah warned the people.

Yet forty days...
and Nineveh shall be overthrown!

The unthinkable happened!
The most wicked people on earth repented and believed God.
It was the greatest revival in history.

Man and beast were covered in sackcloth before God in true repentance.

The ENTIRE CITY turned from their wicked ways!

Page 15

God spared Ninevah because they turned to Him.

Jonah was furious!
He wanted the Ninevites DEAD!

Outside the city, Jonah built a booth to watch if God would burn down the city.

He was glad when God allowed a gourd to grow up and shade him from the heat.

Page 16

Jonah was outraged over the worm killing the gourd. So God sent wind and heat that made Jonah faint.

"It is better for me to die than to live."*

God used this incident to teach Jonah a great lesson.

*Jonah 4:3

Jonah had pity on the gourd...
but no mercy for people!

But God showed Jonah that the 120,000 little children and the cattle of Ninevah were far more important than a gourd.

Page 17

The One who created Jonah and the great fish, was born in a manger about 700 years later. His name was Jesus.

The Bible says...

"He came into the world, the world was made by him, and the world knew him not." (John 1:10)

As Jonah warned Nineveh, Jesus warned US of coming judgment.

When the Lord Jesus Christ began his ministry, his first word was...
Repent!

Page 18

Jesus spoke more about hell than anyone else in the Bible.

Out of love, He warned us that hell is real and gave us a way of escape.

As "God the Son," He will send all who die in their sins to that horrible place.

"For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son (Jesus)." (John 5:22)

Page 19

Jesus said:

"For as (Jonah) was three days and three nights in the whale's belly;

so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth."
(Matt. 12:40)

*Matthew 12:41

"... behold, a greater than (Jonah) is here."*

It was an act of love when God sent Jonah to warn Nineveh...

But the greatest act of love the world had ever seen was yet to come.

Page 20

Jesus Christ was the perfect and final sacrifice.

See John 3:16

He shed his precious blood to wash away our sins, the God of heaven dying for sinful man.

Three days later, He rose from the grave, victorious over death.

He told his disciples:

All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. (Matt. 28:18)

Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. (Mark 16:15)

Page 21

The people of Nineveh were spared God's judgment... because they REPENTED.

"...except ye repent, ye shall ALL likewise perish (in hell)." (Luke 13:3)

The Bible says YOU can also escape God's judgment:

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved (from hell), and thy house." (Acts 16:31)

Make sure you don't hear these horrible words when you die:

"Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels."*

"And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal."
(Matt. 25:46)

*Matt. 25:41

Page 22

THE BIBLE SAYS THERE'S ONLY ONE WAY TO HEAVEN!

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 14:6

NOBODY ELSE CAN SAVE YOU. TRUST JESUS TODAY!

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Rom. 10:9

1. Admit you are a sinner. See Romans 3:10
2. Be willing to turn from sin (repent). See Acts 17:30
3. Believe that Jesus Christ died for you, was buried and rose from the dead. See Rom. 10:9-10
4. Through prayer, invite Jesus into your heart to become your personal Saviour. See Rom. 10:13

WHAT TO PRAY

Dear God, I am a sinner and need forgiveness. I believe that Jesus Christ shed His precious blood and died for my sin. I am willing to turn from sin. I now invite Christ to come into my heart as my personal Saviour.

If you trusted Jesus as your Saviour, you have just begun a wonderful new life with Him. Now:

1. Read your Bible (KJV) every day to get to know Jesus Christ better.
2. Talk to God in prayer every day.
3. Be baptized, worship, fellowship, and serve with other Christians in a church where Christ is preached and the Bible is the final authority.
4. Tell others about Jesus Christ.
