May the Lord grant you understanding of this prayer journal as you pray, consequent upon which there will be changes in your life or your prayer group or Family, Church, Nation, and Continent. What is presented are not Jewish Dates or the Jewish calendar but what the LORD instituted which we all see manifested in the movement of the Moon every month. The enemy has always manipulated these bodies for which believers are just becoming aware. This season is also a special edition of revelation which brings a new breath of fresh air without adding to the word of God but confirms it and makes our faith stronger.

You may wish to pray in two ways:-

1. You can pray using the whole journal to pray into the womb of time according to the authority level granted to you by your appointment in the Lord. Expect the prophetic germination [as you saturate the ground and the womb of time with God's ordination] to happen. In any case ensure your seed remains in the ground as investment for the coming year. Determine, and command what this month should deliver to you and what it should not and must Not.
2. You can also use this daily for your prayers AND DEVOTION to prevail at the gate of each day, especially on critical days of intense warfare in the heavens. Remember that the day starts from 6pm for the next 24 hours. If you are in Britain for instance the time will be early hours of the next day in Hong Kong @ your 6pm.
3. This document may seem lengthy, but it shows the effort that was generated in prayer. You can keep it and save it for use in a good way.

Pray that your prophetic faculties will be on the rise and be enlarged and sharp...visions; dreams; interpreting symbols; applying parables; riddles; revelation and predictions; accurate delivery of words of wisdom and words of knowledge; intercessions; interaction with heaven etc.. Divine decrees to cause the future and many other such faculties

SHAPE YOUR DAY, MONTH AND CONSEQUENTLY YOUR YEARS

Ignorance of what every month holds for you, your family, community, nation, the church and the continent at large has caused many to perish, miss out or not fully access what God has in store for them.

Understanding the heavens and what they signify every month is another very key aspect as we enter this new level of our assignments among the nations. While the kingdom of darkness has used astrology, prognostications, and all manner of demonic methods to control the activities on earth using the heavens, the church continues in ignorance. They have even employed materialism to blind believers in Jesus Christ, whereas all things are yours

We thank God for the many people whom He is raising in different parts of the world to understand what the heavens hold for us every month. As you seek deeper understanding, the Holy Spirit will guide you into greater revelations. Amen

SPIRITUAL MULTIPLICATION: GOD'S STRATEGY FOR FILLING THE EARTH WITH DISCIPLE-MAKERS

“The things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.” — 2 Timothy 2:2

Introduction

Throughout history, God has never measured His Kingdom by crowds alone. Heaven's concern has always been multiplication. From the opening chapters of Genesis to the closing vision of Revelation, Scripture reveals a God who desires His life, His truth, and His Kingdom to spread through people who reproduce His life in others.

This divine strategy is seen in God's promise to Abraham that his descendants would be as numerous as the stars of heaven and the sand upon the seashore. It is reflected in Moses preparing Joshua, Elijah raising Elisha, Jesus investing deeply in the Twelve, and Paul mentoring Timothy, Titus, and many faithful co-workers. At every stage of redemptive history, God advanced His purposes through multiplication rather than mere addition.

Yet a sobering reality confronts the Church today. Many congregations grow in attendance without growing in multiplication. Ministries become increasingly active, conferences become larger, and knowledge expands, but relatively few believers intentionally reproduce disciples who themselves become disciple-makers.

The Great Commission was never intended to end with conversions. Christ commanded His followers to “make disciples of all nations.” This command carries within it the expectation of continuous spiritual reproduction until every people group has heard the gospel and every nation has been impacted by the Kingdom of God.

Strategic prayer must therefore concern itself not only with open doors for evangelism but with the raising of generations of reproducing disciples. Prayer at the strategic level seeks Heaven's intervention to establish cultures, churches, and ministries where multiplication becomes normal rather than exceptional.

God's Kingdom Advances Through Multiplication

Creation itself reveals God's design. Every living thing was commanded to bear fruit and multiply according to its kind. This principle extends beyond biology into the spiritual realm. Every believer is called to become a channel through whom the life of Christ is transmitted to others.

Jesus did not merely gather followers. He intentionally developed disciples who would carry His mission after His ascension. He walked with them, instructed them, corrected them, entrusted them with responsibility, and eventually released them into ministry. His earthly ministry was not built upon constant public activity alone but upon deliberate investment in a relatively small group who would multiply His life throughout the nations.

The Book of Acts demonstrates the effectiveness of this strategy. The apostles did not simply preach in cities; they established communities of disciples who themselves became centres of witness, leadership development, and missionary expansion. The Word of God increased because people increased who were able to teach, disciple, and send others.

Where multiplication exists, the Kingdom advances exponentially. Where multiplication is absent, ministries often plateau regardless of their size or visibility.

Why Multiplication Often Stops

Many believers begin their Christian lives with zeal for witnessing and discipling others. Yet over time that passion often fades. The reasons are seldom a lack of biblical knowledge. More often they relate to culture, priorities, and environment.

When churches become primarily occupied with maintaining programmes rather than equipping people for mission, members gradually become spectators instead of participants. Evangelism becomes the responsibility of specialists. Discipleship becomes another classroom experience rather than a lifestyle of intentional investment.

Another common obstacle is isolation. Spiritual multiplication rarely flourishes in environments where believers labour alone. God consistently works through relationships marked by encouragement, accountability, shared vision, prayer, and mutual strengthening. Lone workers often become discouraged, whereas communities united around God's mission inspire perseverance and fruitfulness.

Prayer reveals these hidden obstacles. Strategic intercession asks God to expose traditions, fears, complacency, and self-centred patterns that hinder reproduction. We must pray not only for individuals but for the transformation of ministry cultures.

The Environment Matters

Seed planted in fertile soil produces abundant harvest. The same seed placed in barren ground yields little.

The same principle applies spiritually.

Believers flourish where leaders consistently model evangelism, celebrate obedience, encourage faith, train workers, and provide opportunities for practical ministry. Such environments create expectancy. New believers quickly discover that following Christ naturally includes helping others follow Him.

Conversely, environments that emphasise attendance over obedience gradually weaken missionary passion. People may remain faithful church attenders for decades without ever intentionally leading another person toward maturity in Christ.

Strategic prayer therefore seeks God's intervention over entire ministry environments. We pray for churches where disciple-making becomes the normal expectation. We pray for leaders whose lives model what they teach. We pray for families that intentionally pass faith from one generation to another. We pray for ministries where every believer understands that spiritual reproduction is part of normal Christian living.

Vision Must Become Culture

Movements are sustained not merely by vision statements but by cultures that embody those visions.

When leaders consistently communicate God's heart for the nations, celebrate stories of transformed lives, invest personally in emerging workers, and release responsibility to faithful people, multiplication gradually becomes part of the organisational DNA.

Culture is formed through repeated behaviours. Vision becomes culture when believers regularly pray together, study Scripture together, share the gospel together, mentor younger believers, and encourage one another toward obedience.

This is why spiritual multiplication cannot be reduced to a programme. It is a way of life.

Strategic prayer asks the Holy Spirit to shape Kingdom cultures where faithfulness is valued above popularity, obedience above convenience, and reproduction above recognition.

The Essential Role of Intentional Relationships

Transformation rarely occurs through information alone.

People mature through relationships.

Jesus invested deeply in His disciples. Paul travelled with Timothy. Barnabas restored John Mark. Aquila and Priscilla patiently instructed Apollos.

Throughout Scripture, mature believers intentionally walked alongside younger believers, helping them develop biblical conviction, spiritual disciplines, ministry competence, and missionary vision.

Healthy disciple-making relationships include encouragement, accountability, practical ministry experience, honest correction, prayer, and shared mission. As believers grow, they are expected to extend these same investments to others.

Thus the chain of multiplication continues from generation to generation.

Strategic prayer should ask God to connect faithful labourers with teachable disciples, experienced leaders with emerging workers, and spiritually mature families with younger households. Kingdom relationships are among Heaven's greatest gifts to the Church.

Prayer: The Hidden Engine of Multiplication

Every significant movement of God has been sustained by extraordinary prayer.

Prayer precedes evangelism. Prayer prepares hearts. Prayer opens nations. Prayer raises workers. Prayer sustains endurance. Prayer protects against spiritual attack. Prayer releases wisdom for complex decisions. Prayer ignites revival.

Without prayer, disciple-making becomes human effort. With prayer, ordinary believers become instruments through whom the Holy Spirit transforms communities and nations.

Strategic-level intercession goes beyond personal requests. It contends for cities, unreached peoples, educational institutions, government leaders, mission agencies, churches, and future generations. It asks God to remove barriers that hinder the advance of the gospel and to establish multiplying communities everywhere.

Every Disciple Is a Future Disciple-Maker

The objective of Christian maturity is not simply personal holiness, although holiness remains essential. Neither is it merely biblical literacy or ministry involvement.

God desires mature believers who are capable of helping others follow Christ.

Every disciple should eventually become a disciple-maker.

Every disciple-maker should eventually develop additional disciple-makers.

Every local church should increasingly become a sending and multiplying church.

Every nation should increasingly become a missionary nation.

This progression reflects God's original design.

When multiplication becomes the expectation, ministry expands beyond the ability of any single leader. The Church becomes a living organism continually reproducing itself under the direction of the Holy Spirit.

Multiplication and the Completion of the Great Commission

The unfinished task before the Church cannot be completed through the efforts of a few gifted leaders alone. Billions remain without adequate gospel witness. Thousands of people groups remain unreached. Entire communities still lack reproducing churches.

The answer is not merely more activity.

The answer is multiplication.

As ordinary believers become intentional disciple-makers, households are transformed. As households multiply, communities change. As communities reproduce healthy churches, regions experience gospel saturation. As churches send trained workers, nations are reached. As nations embrace God's mission, the vision of Revelation—a redeemed multitude from every tribe, language, people, and nation—moves steadily toward fulfillment.

Strategic prayer therefore aligns with Heaven's agenda. We pray not simply for revival but for reproducing revival. We pray not merely for churches but for multiplying churches. We pray not merely for leaders but for leaders who develop leaders. We pray not merely for conversions but for lifelong disciples who themselves become faithful disciple-makers.

Final Challenge

Our generation possesses unprecedented technology, communication, education, and global connectivity. Yet the decisive question remains unchanged:

Who are we intentionally helping to become mature followers of Jesus Christ?

Kingdom influence is measured not by how much we accumulate but by how faithfully we reproduce the life of Christ in others.

May the Lord raise churches where multiplication is natural, leaders who reproduce themselves with humility, families that pass the faith from generation to generation, and prayer movements that sustain gospel advance among every people and nation....

Biblical Models of Spiritual Multiplication: Lessons from the Streets to the Nations

One of the greatest strengths of the New Testament is that it presents disciple-making not merely as a doctrine but as a lived reality. The Lord did not reveal a theoretical blueprint from heaven; He demonstrated a practical model that could function in villages, marketplaces, homes, synagogues, prisons, riversides, workshops, and cities. This gives every believer confidence that spiritual multiplication is not reserved for professional ministers but is designed for ordinary people living ordinary lives under the extraordinary power of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus remains the supreme model. Before He preached to multitudes, He called a few to "be with Him" (Mark 3:14). Relationship preceded responsibility. Observation preceded participation. The disciples first watched Him minister, then ministered alongside Him, and finally ministered independently under His authority. He corrected them privately, celebrated their progress, answered their questions, and continually redirected their focus toward the Father's mission. His classroom was wherever people lived—on dusty roads, fishing boats, mountainsides, family homes, wedding feasts, and public squares. Every circumstance became an opportunity for formation.

The Apostle Paul followed a remarkably similar pattern. He travelled with companions rather than alone, intentionally investing in men and women who would later strengthen churches and pioneer new works. Timothy, Titus, Silas, Luke, Priscilla and Aquila, Epaphroditus, and many others illustrate a leadership pipeline built through shared ministry rather than detached instruction. Paul's letters repeatedly reveal encouragement, correction, delegation, accountability, and succession planning. His objective was never merely to complete today's assignment but to prepare tomorrow's leaders.

The church at Antioch provides another outstanding model. It was multicultural, prayerful, generous, and outward-looking. Teachers and prophets ministered together before the Holy Spirit commissioned Barnabas and Saul for missionary service. Antioch demonstrates that healthy churches do not simply gather people; they continually release people. A church that only accumulates eventually stagnates. A church that equips and sends becomes a strategic Kingdom base from which the gospel advances to the nations.

The ministry of Philip also offers practical insight. He proclaimed Christ publicly in Samaria, explained the Scriptures personally to the Ethiopian official, and remained sensitive to the Spirit's direction. Effective disciple-makers learn to move comfortably between public proclamation and personal conversation. Some opportunities require preaching to crowds; others require sitting beside one searching soul and opening the Scriptures.

These biblical examples are profoundly practical for modern life. Disciple-making does not begin with complicated programmes or expensive facilities. It begins by praying for one person, intentionally building trust, opening God's Word together, modelling obedience, answering honest questions, serving practical needs, and encouraging immediate application of biblical truth. A workplace lunch break, a university campus, a family meal, a neighbourhood walk, a taxi ride, a football field, or a local market can all become places where eternal conversations begin.

Strategic-level prayer must therefore seek more than successful church events. We should pray for believers whose eyes are open to everyday opportunities, whose homes become centres of hospitality, whose workplaces become fields of witness, and whose daily routines become pathways for Kingdom influence. When thousands of ordinary Christians embrace this lifestyle, disciple-making moves from the church building into the streets, and from the streets into entire communities. This is how movements are born, cities are transformed, and nations are ultimately reached for Christ.

Let this become our continual prayer:

“Lord, make me fruitful. Make those I serve fruitful. Raise through us generations of faithful disciple-makers until the knowledge of the glory of the Lord fills the earth as the waters cover the sea. Amen.”

Adopt-A-Missionary- A Missions’ Strategy

<https://fullstature.net/25-get-involved/25-adopt-a-missionary/>

...a strategy for loving the missionary family as well as the people groups, they serve

Adopt-A-Missionary is a mission strategy that has gained momentum in missions over the years. What makes this strategy different is its focus. Historically, churches have focused on countries, and mission agencies have focused their attention on people groups. Adopt-A- Missionary focuses on missionary families, or what we can call message bearers.

For 5 years, my wife (of blessed memory) and I served as missionary representatives to the Kenyan peoples of East Africa. We divided the nation of Kenya into 6. Working with the missionary on ground we had a plan to evangelise the nation. We raised teams of two by two from Nigeria and travelled from Nigeria to the different regions of Kenya. We planted 6 churches throughout the country. In the last 29 years + the FMI missionary teams have been helped by God to open the gospel among 40 unreached people groups. Our FMC churches faithfully prayed and the missionaries that we served with, and the church has supported them financially.

In 1990 for example, we were relocated to Kano, Nigeria, Northwest, with two major tribes- the Kanawas and Magusawas. We were led of the Lord to pay more attention to tribal missions in 1993, where the gospel has never been heard while maintaining a church base. Thankfully, our churches have continued to pray for and support the mission's effort with this strategic ministry.

ADOPT-A-Missionary Defined

What then does it mean to Adopt-A-missionary? It means committing yourself as an individual, fellowship group, local congregation, denomination, or mission agency to pray for and commit resources to win souls, establish believers, administrate the work within a specific people group through a missionary family or families. This commitment is continued until the believers in that people group can reach the rest of their people without outside (cross-cultural) assistance.

We are agents of God praying, giving, and serving to see an adopted family reach out to bring sinners into God's family. This is the true meaning of Adopting a missionary family. One day this will be accomplished, and every tribe, tongue, people, and nation will give glory to God around His throne (Rev. 5:9).

Adopt a Missionary Family

Fullstature Missions International is committed to the work of missions and has developed a ministry to bring into focus the Great Commission (Matt 28:19-20) set forth by Christ and to support missionary families need. We ask that your family prayerfully consider adopting a missionary family to be a blessing and to be blessed. After you have made an adoption, we encourage you can send your missionary family an email to share about your family and to ask them to share with you. The FMI becomes a bridge to help people you may never know or meet. You can reach out to the missionary during Holidays, birthdays, or anniversaries or just at any time. Commit to lift your missionary up in prayer. (Phil 6)

It is also our desire to support more missionaries through our ministry budget than we currently can do. The missionaries we support currently are under-supported. In other words, the support we grant is not adequate. In most cases, we are nearly able (with Naira) to provide what will keep body and soul together leaving projects in the field undone. This is where you pause and do something.

It is our goal to ensure that every Missionary, supported through, (what we call) the General Fund which includes the "Faith Promise Offering" (FPO), are missionaries we, as a ministry want to support.

The money these Missionaries receive is totally dependent on what is given by the individual or families who have adopted them.

Example: Missionary "Felix" may have two families in First Baptist Church which chose to adopt him. They do so for a combined support of $200 per month, one for $75 per month and one for $125 per month. Should the family who chose to support Missionary "Felix" for $125 per month be unable to do so for any reason, Missionary "Felix" would only receive $75 for that month. There will be a "shortfall" and the family who was unable to give what they had purposed to give would not be contacted and asked, "Where is your contribution".

If you have a desire to support a Missionary, please feel free to fill out a “Adopt-A-Missionary Request Form” and return it to our ministry office.

Build a Relationship

Develop a relationship with your adopted missionary family. Learn about their ministry and their ups and downs so that you know when to Praise God with them and when to lift them up in prayer. Being a missionary can have very hard times and there is great comfort when a missionary knows that God is always there and that there are people supporting them at every step.

Faith Promise

In addition to your commitment to get to know and pray for your adopted missionary, you may consider supporting your missionary financially. Among some of the greatest difficulties that missionaries face is having their financial needs met. Missionaries typically spend a significant amount of time raising monies to support their ministries which in turn reduces the amount of time out in the field.

Would you prayerfully consider financially committing to a missionary? If you agree please fill out the form below and send separately.

Thank you.

GOD THINKS IN GENERATIONS

Key Scripture: Genesis 22:15–18

“In your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed...”

Kingdom Perspective

God has never worked merely with individuals; He has always worked through generations. When He called Abraham, His purpose extended far beyond blessing one obedient man. God intended to establish a covenant through which every family, tribe, people, and nation would ultimately experience redemption. The promise of descendants “as the stars of heaven and as the sand upon the seashore” was not simply about biological increase but about spiritual multiplication through faith.

This principle forms the foundation of the Great Commission. Jesus did not command the Church merely to gather converts but to make disciples who would in turn make disciples. Every genuine disciple is meant to become a channel through which the life of Christ flows into succeeding generations.

The enemy often tempts believers to think only in terms of today's needs, today's ministry, or today's victories. God, however, thinks beyond our lifetime. Every act of obedience today has the potential to influence generations yet unborn. Abraham never witnessed the full extent of God's promise, yet his obedience continues to bless the nations.

Strategic prayer therefore looks beyond immediate answers. It seeks to establish spiritual legacies that will outlive us.

Biblical Model

Abraham (Genesis 12; 15; 22)

Abraham's greatness lay not merely in his faith but in his willingness to trust God with the future. He built altars wherever he journeyed, leaving behind places of worship that testified to God's faithfulness. His life reminds us that Kingdom influence is measured not by what we accumulate but by what we leave behind for future generations.

Kingdom Principles

- God’s vision is always larger than one generation.
- Obedience today releases blessings tomorrow.
- Every disciple should intentionally prepare successors.
- Spiritual inheritance is more valuable than material inheritance.
- The Kingdom advances through faithful transmission of truth.

Streetwise Application

Whether you are a parent, teacher, business owner, pastor, market trader, student, or civil servant, ask yourself: Who is learning Christ because of my life? A conversation with a younger colleague, regular prayer with your children, or intentional encouragement of a new believer may become the beginning of a generational legacy.

Five Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 78:4–7
- Isaiah 54:2–3
- Matthew 28:19–20
- 2 Timothy 2:2
- Revelation 7:9

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Father, enlarge my vision beyond my lifetime.
2. Make me a faithful steward of spiritual inheritance.
3. Raise spiritual sons and daughters through my life.
4. Break every cycle that limits Kingdom multiplication in my family.
5. Establish Your covenant through future generations.
6. Let my church become a multiplying church.
7. Raise labourers from our nation for the nations.
8. Let every investment I make in people bear eternal fruit.

Activation

Prayerfully identify one person younger in the faith whom you will intentionally encourage throughout this month.

Faith Proclamation

“I am part of God’s generational purpose. My life shall reproduce faithful disciples who will carry Christ to future generations.”

Thursday, July 2

BEFORE JESUS SENT THEM, HE SHAPED THEM

Scripture: Mark 3:13–15

Kingdom Focus: Christ's first strategy was not public ministry but private formation. Before preaching, miracles, and worldwide mission came the invitation: "that they might be with Him." True multiplication begins with transformed lives before transformed ministries.

Biblical Model: Jesus and the Twelve.

Kingdom Principle: Presence with Christ produces power for Christ.

Streetwise Application: Spend intentional time with one believer each week—not merely discussing Scripture but modelling prayer, integrity, compassion, and obedience.

Supporting Scriptures: John 15:4–8; Luke 6:40; Matthew 4:19; Acts 4:13; Philippians 3:17.

Strategic Warrior Prayers: Pray that God will make you a disciple before making you a leader; that intimacy will replace performance; and that your ministry will flow from abiding in Christ.

Activation: Set aside one uninterrupted hour this week for communion with Christ through Scripture and prayer.

Proclamation: "I abide in Christ. Therefore, I shall bear lasting fruit."

Friday, July 3

THE GREAT COMMISSION IS GOD'S MULTIPLICATION STRATEGY

Scripture: Matthew 28:18–20

Jesus commanded us to make disciples, not merely decisions. Evangelism begins the journey; discipleship matures believers; multiplication continues the mission. Every mature disciple becomes a disciple-maker, creating an ever-expanding witness to Christ.

Study the multiplication of the early Church in Acts 2, Acts 6, Acts 9, and Acts 19. Notice that the emphasis is repeatedly on the Word of God increasing and disciples multiplying.

Streetwise Application: Look beyond attendance. Ask whether your ministry is intentionally equipping believers to teach, mentor, and reproduce others.

Supporting Scriptures: Acts 2:41–47; Acts 6:7; Acts 9:31; Colossians 1:28–29; 2 Timothy 2:2.

Strategic Warrior Prayers: Pray for reproducing disciples, multiplying churches, bold witnesses, and open doors among unreached peoples.

Activation: Share your testimony with one person this week and begin praying for an opportunity to study Scripture together.

Proclamation: “The Great Commission governs my priorities, my prayers, and my life.”

Saturday, July 4

SEEING WHAT GOD SEES IN PEOPLE

Scripture: John 1:40–42

Jesus saw Simon and called him Peter before Peter behaved like a rock. Kingdom leaders see potential hidden beneath weakness. Barnabas recognised grace in Saul before many believers trusted him. Mature disciple-makers invest in what people can become by God’s grace.

Biblical Models: Jesus and Peter; Barnabas and Saul.

Kingdom Principle: Great leaders develop people before they become influential.

Streetwise Application: Speak words that call out God’s purpose in others. Encourage rather than merely criticize.

Supporting Scriptures: Acts 9:26–28; 1 Samuel 16:7; Ephesians 2:10; Philippians 1:6; Romans 8:29.

Strategic Warrior Prayers: Ask God for prophetic vision to recognize future leaders and courage to invest in overlooked people.

Activation: Encourage one person today by affirming the gifts and calling you see developing in them.

Proclamation: “I will see people through the eyes of Christ and invest in their Kingdom destiny.”

Sunday, July 5

PRAYER IS THE ENGINE OF MULTIPLICATION

Scripture: Luke 10:2

The first command Jesus gave concerning the harvest was not “Go” but “Pray.” Prayer prepares labourers, opens hearts, dismantles spiritual strongholds, and aligns the Church with God’s mission. Throughout Acts, prayer preceded every major advance of the gospel.

The church at Antioch worshipped, fasted, and prayed before sending Barnabas and Saul. Strategic prayer does not merely seek personal blessing—it seeks Kingdom expansion.

Biblical Models: The church at Antioch; the praying believers in Acts 4.

Supporting Scriptures: Acts 4:31; Acts 13:1–3; Jeremiah 33:3; James 5:16; Ephesians 6:18.

Strategic Warrior Prayers: Pray for labourers, revival, open nations, bold proclamation, multiplying churches, and enduring faithfulness.

Activation: Begin a daily prayer list for five people who need Christ and pray consistently for opportunities to disciple them.

Faith Proclamation: “My prayers prepare the harvest, release labourers, and advance the Kingdom of God among the nations.”

Theme: Spiritual Multiplication in the Real World

Part Two: Building a Culture of Multiplication

Monday, July 6 – Friday, July 10

Monday, July 6

Title: Building a Culture That Multiplies Disciples

Scripture for the Day: 2 Timothy 2:2

“And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.”

Reflection

God never intended His Kingdom to depend upon gifted personalities. His strategy has always been multiplication through faithful people. The Apostle Paul did not merely preach to Timothy; he poured his life into him until Timothy became capable of reproducing others.

Every lasting move of God eventually develops a culture. Culture is what people naturally do without being told. Churches often celebrate attendance, but heaven celebrates reproduction.

A multiplication culture asks different questions:

- Who am I investing in?
- Who is following Christ because of my life?
- Who will continue the work after I am gone?

- Am I producing admirers or disciple-makers?

Many ministries remain dependent upon one charismatic leader. When that leader dies, retires, or becomes weary, the ministry weakens because multiplication was never embedded into its culture.

Jesus built a reproducing community. The Twelve observed Him praying, serving, preaching, correcting, healing, forgiving, and sending. Long before Pentecost they had already been living inside a multiplication culture.

Culture is never established merely by preaching. It is built by consistent example.

Biblical Precedent

- Jesus spent approximately three years intentionally developing twelve men.
- Paul invested deeply in Timothy, Titus, Silas, Luke, Epaphras, and many others.
- Moses trained Joshua publicly for decades before leadership transferred.
- Elijah developed Elisha before his departure.
- The Kingdom advances because faithful people intentionally prepare faithful people.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

- History demonstrates that every enduring revival eventually developed systems for discipling believers.
- Where believers meet regularly in homes...
- where leaders intentionally mentor younger believers...
- where mature Christians invite others into their daily lives...
- where ministry responsibility is shared...
- the Gospel expands naturally.
- Today ask yourself:
- Who am I intentionally helping grow spiritually?
- Who knows my prayer life?
- Who has access to my victories and failures?
- Am I leaving behind workers—or merely listeners?

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- 2 Timothy 2:2
- Matthew 28:19–20
- Mark 3:13–15
- Acts 2:42–47
- Ephesians 4:11–16

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Father, make my life a fertile field for raising faithful disciples.
- Destroy every culture of dependency within Your Church.
- Raise spiritual fathers and mothers who reproduce Christ in others.

- Deliver me from the desire to merely impress people instead of transforming them.
- May every investment I make produce generations of Kingdom labourers.

Activation

- List three believers whom God may be calling you to mentor intentionally during the next twelve months.
- Pray over each name daily.
- Begin meeting with one this week.

Proclamation

I am not merely called to gather believers. I am called to raise disciple-makers. Through my life, faithful men and women shall arise to serve Christ across generations.

Title: The Home: God's First Discipleship School

Scripture for the Day

Deuteronomy 6:6–9

Reflection

- Long before Israel had kings, prophets, or synagogues, God established the family as His primary training centre.

Parents were commanded to speak God's Word:

- when sitting,
- when walking,
- when lying down,
- and when rising.
- Discipleship was never intended to be confined to weekly gatherings.

- The strongest disciple-making movement begins around dining tables, family prayers, daily conversations, correction, forgiveness, generosity, and visible obedience.
- Many believers outsource spiritual formation to pastors.
- God first entrusted it to parents.
- Healthy churches grow from healthy homes.
- If multiplication fails in the home, it becomes difficult to sustain within the church.
- Children often imitate character before they understand doctrine.
- The home becomes the laboratory where the Gospel is demonstrated daily.

Biblical Precedent

- Abraham was chosen because God knew he would command his household after Him.

Joshua declared:

“As for me and my house...”

- Timothy inherited sincere faith first from Lois and Eunice.
- The early Church frequently gathered in homes.
- God repeatedly begins Kingdom movements within families.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

- Many missionaries trace their calling to parents or grandparents who consistently prayed, read Scripture, and modelled Christ at home.
- Children remember consistency more than eloquence.

Today’s assignment:

- Pray together.
- Read Scripture together.
- Eat together.
- Serve together.
- Forgive quickly.
- These ordinary habits become extraordinary discipleship.

Five Scriptures

- Deuteronomy 6:6–9
- Genesis 18:19
- Joshua 24:15
- 2 Timothy 1:5
- Acts 16:31–34

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Lord, restore biblical discipleship within Christian homes.
- Heal broken family altars.
- Raise fathers and mothers who model Christ faithfully.
- May every household represented become a centre of Kingdom multiplication.

- Break every generational cycle that hinders spiritual inheritance.

Activation

- Gather your family—or, if you live alone, intentionally contact a younger believer—and spend time praying and reading Scripture together today.

Proclamation

- My home shall become a training ground for future Kingdom labourers. Christ shall be honoured within my household from generation to generation.

Title: Disciples Are Formed Through Shared Life

Scripture for the Day

Mark 3:14: “He appointed twelve—that they might be with Him...”

Reflection

- Before Jesus sent the disciples, He invited them to live with Him.
- Presence preceded preaching.
- Relationship preceded responsibility.
- Modern ministry often emphasizes classrooms, conferences, and curriculum.
- Jesus emphasized shared life.
- His disciples watched Him:
 - pray,
 - rest,
 - eat,
 - respond to criticism,
 - minister to crowds,
 - comfort the broken,
 - and withdraw for solitude.
- Discipleship happens in proximity.
- Information changes minds.
- Shared life transforms hearts.
- People learn how to follow Christ by watching mature believers follow Him.

Biblical Precedent

- Jesus lived openly before His disciples.
- Paul repeatedly said, “Imitate me.”
- The Thessalonians received not only the Gospel but Paul’s very life.
- Barnabas travelled with Saul.
- Timothy travelled with Paul.

- Life transferred life.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

- Ask yourself:
- Who sees how I pray?
- Who observes how I treat difficult people?
- Who watches me serve?
- Who sees my private consistency?
- True disciple-making requires access.

Five Scriptures

- Mark 3:14
- 1 Thessalonians 2:8
- Philippians 4:9
- 1 Corinthians 11:1
- Acts 16:1–5

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Teach me to model Christ consistently.
- Remove hypocrisy from my life.
- Help me disciple through authentic relationships.
- Raise trustworthy examples throughout the Body of Christ.
- May my daily life preach Christ as clearly as my words.

Activation

- Invite one younger believer to spend time with you during an ordinary activity this week.
- Allow discipleship to happen naturally.

Proclamation

- Christ is being formed in me, and through my life others shall learn to follow Him faithfully.

Title: Every Believer Is Called to Reproduce

Scripture for the Day

John 15:8: “By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; so you will be My disciples.”

Reflection

- Fruitfulness is not optional.
- Reproduction is not reserved for pastors, evangelists, or missionaries.

- Every believer has influence.
- Some reproduce through evangelism.
- Others through hospitality.
- Others through teaching.
- Others through prayer.
- Others through encouragement.
- Others through generosity.
- The Holy Spirit distributes gifts so that every member contributes to Kingdom expansion.
- The question is not:

“Do I have influence?”

The question is:

“Am I using my influence to reproduce Christ?”

Biblical Precedent

- Priscilla and Aquila discipled Apollos.
- Dorcas influenced an entire community.
- Stephen impacted the Church despite serving tables.
- Philip reached Samaria and Ethiopia.
- Ordinary believers became extraordinary multipliers.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

- Kingdom multiplication often begins through ordinary faithfulness.
- One conversation.
- One invitation.
- One Bible study.
- One prayer meeting.
- One act of kindness.
- God multiplies faithful obedience.

Five Scriptures

- John 15:8
- Ephesians 2:10
- Romans 12:4–8
- 1 Peter 4:10
- Acts 8:4

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Father, reveal my unique contribution to Kingdom multiplication.
- Deliver me from comparison.
- Increase my spiritual fruitfulness.

- Empower every member of Christ's Body to fulfil their assignment.
- May the nations be reached through ordinary believers walking in extraordinary obedience.

Activation

- Identify one spiritual gift God has entrusted to you.
- Use it intentionally today to strengthen another believer.

Proclamation

- I have been created for fruitful Kingdom service. Through the Holy Spirit, my life shall continually reproduce Christ in others.

Title: Developing Leaders Who Develop Leaders

Scripture for the Day

Exodus 18:21–22

Reflection

- Healthy leadership is measured not by how many people follow one leader, but by how many leaders are raised.
- When Moses attempted to carry the burden alone, exhaustion threatened both him and the nation. Jethro recognized that leadership must be multiplied through capable, trustworthy men.
- Throughout Scripture, God consistently raises leaders who raise others. Moses trained Joshua. Samuel mentored prophets. Elijah prepared Elisha. Jesus developed the Twelve. Paul invested in Timothy, Titus, and many faithful co-workers.
- Leadership that is not reproduced eventually becomes a bottleneck to God's work.
- Some leaders fear releasing others because they may lose influence. Kingdom leadership thinks differently. The success of a leader is not seen in personal prominence but in the maturity, effectiveness, and faithfulness of those he equips.
- The Church must move beyond admiration of gifted leaders to intentional development of emerging leaders. Every ministry, home, small group, and mission team should become a training environment where responsibility is gradually entrusted, mistakes become learning opportunities, and future leaders are affirmed, corrected, and commissioned.

- The goal is not merely to preserve today's ministry but to prepare tomorrow's harvesters. The Great Commission will only be completed by generations of leaders who continue to raise other leaders until Christ returns.

Biblical Precedent

- Moses appointed capable leaders over thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens.
- Joshua commissioned leaders for the conquest.
- Jesus sent the Twelve and later the Seventy-Two.
- Paul instructed Timothy to entrust truth to faithful people who would teach others also.
- Leadership multiplication has always been God's strategy.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Ask yourself:

- Am I giving younger leaders meaningful opportunities to grow?
- Do I coach more than I control?
- Am I preparing successors rather than protecting my position?
- If I were absent for a year, would the work continue to flourish?
- Kingdom leadership is successful when others become capable of carrying the mission further than we ever could alone.

Five Scriptures

- Exodus 18:21–22
- Numbers 27:18–23
- 2 Timothy 2:2
- Ephesians 4:11–13
- Matthew 9:37–38

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Father, raise a new generation of faithful leaders in Your Church.
- Deliver us from insecurity, pride, and the fear of releasing others.
- Grant us wisdom to identify, train, encourage, and commission emerging leaders.
- May every ministry represented become a leadership development centre for the nations.
- Let the harvest fields never lack prepared labourers.

Activation

- Identify one emerging leader whom you can intentionally encourage, coach, or entrust with a meaningful responsibility this week. Pray for that person daily and create an opportunity for growth rather than simply completing the task yourself.

Proclamation

- I will not merely lead; I will raise leaders who raise leaders. By the grace of God, my life and ministry shall leave a legacy of faithful disciples, mature leaders, and multiplying Kingdom labourers for generations to come.

Spiritual Parenting — The Heart of Kingdom Multiplication

Scripture for the Day

“For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.”

1 Corinthians 4:15 (KJV)

Reflection

- Kingdom multiplication does not begin with programs, strategies, conferences, or institutions. It begins with fathers and mothers whose lives become living demonstrations of Christ.
- Every great move of God throughout Scripture was sustained because someone intentionally raised another generation.
- The tragedy of many churches today is not a shortage of converts but a shortage of spiritual parents.
- Many preach.
- Many teach.
- Many lead.
- Few reproduce themselves.
- Jesus never merely gathered crowds.
- He raised sons.
- For three and a half years He opened His life before twelve ordinary men. They watched Him pray, minister, rest, confront opposition, love sinners, and obey His Father. His greatest investment was not into events but into people.
- Kingdom influence is measured less by how many people know your name and more by how many people can faithfully continue God’s work after you are gone.
- Spiritual parenting requires more than instruction.

It requires:

- Presence before presentation.
- Relationship before responsibility.
- Character before gifting.
- Impartation before delegation.
- Sacrifice before recognition.

The Kingdom advances whenever mature believers intentionally adopt younger believers—not merely to mentor them occasionally but to walk with them until Christ is formed in them.

- True fathers celebrate when sons exceed them.
- They are secure enough to release others.
- Many ministries stop growing because leaders become indispensable.
- The Kingdom grows when leaders become reproducible.
- The greatest evidence of maturity is not how much ministry you perform but how much ministry you reproduce.

Biblical Precedent

- Jesus invested deeply in the Twelve, preparing them to carry His mission to the nations (Mark 3:13–15).
- Barnabas recognized potential in Saul (Paul) when others feared him. He introduced him to the apostles and later sought him out for ministry in Antioch (Acts 9:26–28; 11:25–26).
- Paul became a spiritual father to Timothy, calling him “my dearly beloved son” and entrusting him with significant responsibility (1 Timothy 1:2).
- Elijah poured his life into Elisha, who eventually carried a double portion of his ministry.
- The Kingdom has always advanced through spiritual lineage rather than isolated personalities.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

- One missionary spent decades planting churches in remote villages. As he grew older, his greatest concern was not how many churches he had started but who would continue the work.
- He began gathering younger believers into his home every week—not merely teaching theology but sharing meals, praying together, visiting villages, solving conflicts, and demonstrating servant leadership.
- Years later, when illness forced him from the field, those young believers had already become pastors, evangelists, church planters, and missionaries.
- The work did not decline.
- It multiplied.

- His ministry had moved from addition to reproduction.

Today ask:

- Who is watching your life?
- Who are you intentionally developing?
- Who could continue your ministry if God called you home today?

The answers reveal whether we are making disciples or merely gathering followers.

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- 1 Corinthians 4:15
- 2 Timothy 2:2
- Mark 3:13–15
- Philippians 4:9
- 1 Thessalonians 2:7–12

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Father, transform me from being merely a minister into a true spiritual father or mother who reproduces Christ in others.
2. Raise within Your Church mature believers who intentionally disciple the next generation.
3. Destroy every spirit of competition, insecurity, jealousy, and control that prevents leaders from releasing others.
4. Let genuine relationships replace superficial discipleship throughout the Body of Christ.
5. Raise faithful sons and daughters in every church, ministry, and mission movement.
6. Grant me discernment to identify those You have entrusted to my care.
7. Make my life a living example worthy of imitation.
8. May every investment I make in people bear fruit across generations.
9. Raise spiritual fathers among pastors, missionaries, evangelists, and marketplace believers.
10. Let Kingdom succession become stronger than personality-centered leadership throughout the nations.

Activation

- Prayerfully identify one believer whom God may be calling you to intentionally disciple over the next year.
- Reach out.
- Begin praying with them regularly.
- Invite them into your life—not merely your meetings.

- Teach by example.
- Model faithfulness.
- Pray together.
- Serve together.
- Allow them to observe your walk with Christ.
- Kingdom multiplication begins one relationship at a time.

Proclamation

- Today I embrace the calling of a spiritual parent. I will not merely gather followers but raise disciples. I will reproduce the life of Christ in others. By God's grace my ministry will multiply through faithful men and women who will carry the Gospel to future generations. My Kingdom influence shall outlive my lifetime, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Raising Faithful Men and Women Who Will Teach Others

Scripture for the Day

“And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.”

2 Timothy 2:2 (KJV)

Reflection

This single verse reveals one of the clearest multiplication strategies in all of Scripture.

Notice the four generations contained within it:

- Paul
- Timothy
- Faithful men and women
- Others also

The Gospel is never intended to stop with us. Every disciple is called to become a disciple-maker.

Paul did not tell Timothy to gather admirers or simply increase attendance. He instructed him to identify people of proven faithfulness, entrust them with truth, and equip them to reproduce it in others.

Faithfulness is the indispensable foundation of multiplication. God can shape knowledge, refine skills, and deepen understanding, but He looks first for hearts that remain loyal, teachable, and obedient.

Kingdom multiplication therefore asks different questions from worldly leadership:

- Not, “Who is the most gifted?” but, “Who is faithful?”
- Not, “Who draws the largest crowd?” but, “Who consistently obeys Christ?”
- Not, “Who speaks well?” but, “Who lives well?”
- Not, “Who can lead today?” but, “Who will faithfully reproduce tomorrow?”

When the Church prizes charisma above character, growth may be rapid but shallow. When it prizes faithfulness, growth becomes enduring and generational.

Faithful disciples become reliable carriers of truth. They preserve sound doctrine, demonstrate holy living, and raise others with the same commitment to Christ.

The Kingdom advances most securely through ordinary believers who quietly remain faithful year after year.

Biblical Precedent

- Moses invested in Joshua, who faithfully led Israel into the Promised Land.
- Jesus entrusted His mission to ordinary disciples who carried the Gospel throughout the known world after His ascension.
- Paul carefully developed trusted co-workers such as Timothy, Titus, Silas, and Luke, each of whom strengthened churches and extended the Gospel beyond Paul’s personal reach.
- The strength of the early Church lay not in one remarkable leader but in a continually expanding network of faithful disciple-makers.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

- A pastor once realized that although his church was growing numerically, every important responsibility still depended on him. If he became ill, most ministries would stall.
- He changed his approach. Instead of doing everything himself, he began investing in a small group of dependable believers. They studied Scripture together, served alongside him, prayed for the sick, visited homes, evangelized, and learned by doing.
- Some were not naturally gifted speakers, but they were dependable.
- Within a few years they were leading ministries, discipling new believers, planting fellowships, and training others in turn.
- The church became healthier because leadership had multiplied rather than accumulated.

Every believer should ask:

- Am I proving faithful in what God has already entrusted to me?

- Am I intentionally equipping someone else?
- If every believer reproduced as I do, what kind of Church would emerge?

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- 2 Timothy 2:2
- Luke 16:10
- Matthew 28:19–20
- Acts 20:28
- Colossians 1:28–29

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Father, make me faithful in every assignment You entrust to me.
2. Raise a generation whose character is stronger than their desire for recognition.
3. Help me discern and invest in faithful men and women who will teach others.
4. Let every church become a training ground for disciple-makers.
5. Deliver the Body of Christ from personality-centered ministry and establish biblical multiplication.
6. Give pastors, missionaries, and leaders wisdom to identify emerging leaders.
7. Raise faithful workers for every people group and nation still awaiting the Gospel.
8. May sound doctrine be faithfully transmitted from one generation to another without compromise.
9. Let my life produce disciples who themselves become disciple-makers.
10. Establish an unbroken chain of faithful witnesses until every nation has heard the Gospel.

Activation

- Choose one aspect of your Christian life that another believer could learn from you this month—prayer, evangelism, Bible study, hospitality, generosity, or discipleship.
- Invite someone to walk with you in that practice. Explain not only what you do, but why you do it. Encourage them to begin teaching the same principle to another believer. In this way, the chain of multiplication begins.

Proclamation

- I am a faithful steward of the Gospel entrusted to me. I will receive truth, live truth, teach truth, and reproduce truth. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, I will raise faithful men and women who will teach others also. My life will become part of God's multiplying Kingdom across generations and nations, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Building Churches That Multiply

Scripture for the Day

“And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.”

Acts 2:47 (KJV)

Supplementary Reading: Acts 2:41–47; Acts 11:19–26; Matthew 16:18

Reflection

- The New Testament Church was never designed merely to grow larger; it was designed to multiply.
- Growth and multiplication are not identical.
- Growth may result in one large congregation.
- Multiplication results in many churches, many leaders, many disciple-makers, and many Kingdom communities extending the Gospel into places previously unreached.
- A healthy tree produces fruit.
- A mature fruit contains seed.
- The seed produces another tree.
- This is God’s law of multiplication throughout creation, and it is equally His pattern for the Church.
- The early believers in Jerusalem did not possess magnificent buildings, sophisticated technology, or extensive financial resources. Yet within one generation, the Gospel had spread throughout the known world because every believer understood that the Church existed for God’s mission rather than its own preservation.
- Churches cease to multiply whenever they become primarily inward-looking.
- A congregation that exists only to care for itself gradually loses its missionary passion. Meetings become ends in themselves. Budgets revolve around maintenance. Leadership becomes occupied with preserving structures rather than advancing the Kingdom.

Multiplying churches continually ask different questions:

- Where is Christ not yet known?
- Which community has no Gospel witness?
- Which language group still waits to hear?
- Which neighbourhood needs a living expression of Christ?
- Who among us can be trained and sent?

The New Testament pattern was remarkably simple:

- Evangelize the lost.

- Disciple believers.
- Develop leaders.
- Plant churches.
- Repeat the process.
- Every local church should view itself as an apostolic sending centre rather than merely a gathering place.
- The measure of success is not simply attendance but reproduction.
- A church truly reflects Christ's heart when it continually raises disciples, develops leaders, plants congregations, strengthens existing churches, and sends labourers to the nations.
- Kingdom multiplication is not the responsibility of a few large ministries.
- It is the calling of every healthy church.

Biblical Precedent

- The church in Jerusalem multiplied rapidly through prayer, biblical teaching, fellowship, generosity, and evangelism (Acts 2:41–47).
- The church at Antioch became one of Scripture's greatest missionary churches. Rather than keeping its best leaders, it joyfully released Barnabas and Paul to carry the Gospel into unreached regions (Acts 13:1–3).
- Throughout the Book of Acts, churches continually reproduced believers, elders, missionaries, and new congregations across cities and nations.
- This remains God's pattern today.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

- A small congregation in a rural community prayed for revival. God answered, and the church steadily grew. Rather than constructing ever-larger facilities alone, the leaders asked a different question:

“Which nearby communities still have no vibrant Gospel witness?”

- Instead of concentrating all resources in one location, they trained lay leaders, formed prayer groups in neighbouring villages, and sent small ministry teams each week.
- Within several years, multiple fellowships had become thriving churches. Some of those churches eventually planted others.
- What began as one congregation became a multiplying movement.
- The Kingdom expands most effectively when churches measure success not only by seating capacity but by sending capacity.

Ask yourself today:

- Is my church intentionally preparing people to be sent?
- Are we investing in leadership development as seriously as we invest in programmes?

- If every church followed our example, would the nations be reached more quickly?

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- Acts 2:41–47
- Matthew 28:18–20
- Acts 13:1–3
- Ephesians 4:11–13
- Isaiah 54:2–3

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Father, transform every local church into a multiplying centre of Kingdom influence.
2. Deliver Your Church from the spirit of maintenance and awaken us to the spirit of mission.
3. Raise visionary pastors who build people more than buildings.
4. Let every congregation become a training ground for disciple-makers and church planters.
5. Release fresh apostolic grace for church planting among every people group.
6. Break every fear that hinders churches from sending their best workers into the harvest.
7. Unite pastors, churches, and ministries in advancing the Great Commission rather than competing with one another.
8. Raise indigenous leaders who will establish strong churches in every nation.
9. Let churches become centres of prayer, evangelism, discipleship, compassion, and missionary sending.
10. May the Kingdom of Christ advance until every city, village, tribe, and nation has a living witness to the Gospel.

Activation

- Prayerfully evaluate your local church.
- Identify one practical way your congregation can become more outward-focused.
- It may involve beginning a discipleship group, supporting missionaries, adopting an unreached community, training future leaders, strengthening a struggling church, or initiating regular evangelistic outreach.
- Then ask your pastor or church leadership how you can personally help advance that vision.
- Kingdom multiplication begins when ordinary believers willingly embrace extraordinary obedience.

Proclamation

- My church is called to multiply, not merely to survive. We are a sending people, a discipling people, and a missionary people. Through the power of the Holy Spirit we shall raise leaders, plant churches, reach communities, and extend Christ's Kingdom to the ends of the earth. Our influence shall multiply across generations until Jesus Christ is glorified among all nations. Amen.

Mobilizing Every Believer for the Nations

Scripture for the Day

“As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.”

John 20:21 (KJV)

Supplementary Reading: Matthew 9:35–38; Romans 10:13–15; Acts 1:8

Reflection

- The Great Commission was never entrusted to a select group of specialists.
- It was entrusted to the entire Body of Christ.
- One of the greatest misconceptions in modern Christianity is the belief that missions belong primarily to missionaries.
- In reality, missions belong to every believer.
- Some are called to go.
- Others are called to send.
- Many are called to pray.
- Some will train.
- Others will give generously.
- Many will mobilize.
- Still others will welcome, encourage, translate, mentor, advocate, and open doors for the Gospel.

- No member of Christ's Body is without a strategic assignment.
- The question is never, "Am I involved?"
- The question is, "How has God called me to participate?"
- When churches understand this truth, spectators become labourers.
- Prayer meetings become launching pads.
- Homes become centres of hospitality.
- Businesses become Kingdom resources.
- Professionals become ambassadors for Christ.
- Young people begin asking not merely, "What career should I pursue?" but, "How can my vocation serve God's global purpose?"
- The Kingdom advances most rapidly when every believer discovers that daily life itself is a mission field.
- The harvest is far too great to be accomplished by pastors and missionaries alone.
- God intends that every disciple become an active participant in His redemptive mission.
- The nations will not be reached by a handful of extraordinary Christians.
- They will be reached when millions of ordinary believers embrace extraordinary obedience.
- Until every believer understands that they have been sent, the Great Commission will remain unfinished.

Biblical Precedent

Following persecution in Jerusalem, ordinary believers—not only the apostles—were scattered and preached the Gospel wherever they went (Acts 8:1–4).

Philip carried the Gospel into Samaria and later shared Christ with the Ethiopian official, opening the way for the Gospel to spread into Africa (Acts 8:26–40).

Priscilla and Aquila faithfully served through hospitality, discipleship, church planting, and mentoring Apollos, demonstrating that every believer can significantly advance God's mission (Acts 18:24–28).

The early Church flourished because mission became the responsibility of the whole Church.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

A successful businessman believed missions belonged to pastors. Although faithful in church attendance, he assumed his role ended with occasional giving.

One missions conference changed his perspective.

He realized that his business network, financial resources, professional expertise, and relationships were all entrusted to him for Kingdom purposes.

He began supporting missionary families, sponsoring leadership training, providing employment opportunities for missionary children, financing Bible translation, and mentoring younger Christian entrepreneurs to invest in missions.

Although he never relocated overseas, his influence helped send workers into nations he would never personally visit.

The Great Commission advanced because one believer discovered his place in God's global mission.

Ask yourself today:

- What resources has God entrusted to me?
- How can my profession advance the Gospel?
- Who am I encouraging toward missionary service?
- What role am I playing in reaching the nations?

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- John 20:21
- Acts 1:8
- Matthew 9:37–38
- Romans 10:13–15
- Isaiah 6:8

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Father, awaken every believer to his or her personal responsibility in the Great Commission.
2. Remove every false distinction between “missionaries” and “ordinary Christians.”
3. Raise an army of labourers from every church, profession, and generation.
4. Ignite a fresh missionary burden among children, youth, families, and senior believers.
5. Release unprecedented generosity to sustain the work of global evangelization.
6. Open doors for the Gospel in every nation, tribe, language, and people.
7. Raise intercessors whose prayers will prepare the nations for revival.
8. Give every believer courage to witness for Christ wherever they are.
9. Unite the global Church in fulfilling the unfinished task of world evangelization.
10. May our generation see an unprecedented mobilization of God's people until the knowledge of the Lord fills the earth as the waters cover the sea.

Activation

- Prayerfully draw two circles.

In the first, write “My Mission Field.”

List the people, workplaces, neighbourhoods, schools, businesses, or communities where God has already placed you.

In the second, write “The Nations.”

Ask God to show you one practical way you can participate this month—through prayer, giving, hospitality, mentoring, advocacy, mobilization, or going.

Then take the first step in obedience.

Every movement of God begins with someone who says, “Here am I; send me.”

Proclamation

I am sent by Jesus Christ. My life belongs to God’s global purpose. Wherever I live, work, travel, or serve, I am Christ’s ambassador. I will pray, give, disciple, mobilize, and witness until the Gospel reaches every people and every nation. Through the Holy Spirit, I joyfully embrace my assignment in fulfilling the Great Commission. In Jesus’ mighty Name. Amen.

Leaving a Multi-Generational Kingdom Legacy

Scripture for the Day

“One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.”

Psalm 145:4 (KJV)

Supplementary Reading: Judges 2:7–10; Deuteronomy 6:4–9; Hebrews 11:39–40

Reflection

Every life leaves a legacy.

The only question is whether that legacy advances the Kingdom of God or ends with us.

Kingdom leaders do not measure success merely by what they accomplish during their lifetime. They ask a far more important question:

“What will remain after I am gone?”

Many people build successful ministries.

Few build enduring movements.

Movements are sustained because every generation intentionally prepares the next.

One of the saddest verses in the Bible records:

"...there arose another generation after them, which knew not the LORD..." (Judges 2:10).

The previous generation had experienced miracles, conquest, covenant, and divine intervention. Yet they failed to transfer their spiritual inheritance effectively.

History teaches that revival is never inherited automatically.

Every generation must be intentionally disciplined.

Kingdom legacy therefore extends far beyond biological children.

Every believer is called to leave behind:

- People transformed by the Gospel.
- Leaders equipped for service.
- Churches strengthened.
- Missionaries sent.
- Scriptures taught faithfully.
- Prayer movements established.
- Communities influenced by righteousness.
- Kingdom values firmly planted.

The true measure of our lives will not simply be the sermons we preached, the conferences we organized, the buildings we constructed, or the titles we accumulated.

Heaven will ask:

Who now serves Christ because you lived?

The greatest inheritance we can leave is not wealth but faith.

Not possessions but purpose.

Not reputation but reproduction.

Not monuments but movements.

One faithful generation can shape many generations yet unborn.

When Abraham obeyed God, nations were blessed.

When Paul disciplined Timothy, churches across continents were strengthened.

When ordinary believers faithfully pass the Gospel forward, eternity itself is changed.

Your obedience today may answer the prayers of generations yet unborn.

Biblical Precedent

Abraham received God's promise that all nations would be blessed through his offspring because he walked by faith and taught his household to follow the Lord (Genesis 12:1–3; 18:19).

David prepared extensively for the building of the Temple, even though his son Solomon would complete it. David laboured for a future he would not personally see (1 Chronicles 22).

Paul deliberately invested in leaders such as Timothy and Titus so that the Gospel would continue spreading long after Paul's earthly ministry ended.

Each understood that God's work must outlive God's workers.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

A missionary couple spent more than thirty years serving among an unreached people group. They translated portions of Scripture, planted churches, trained local elders, and discipled young believers.

Near retirement someone asked whether they regretted not building a larger international ministry.

They smiled and replied,

"Our greatest achievement is that the Church no longer depends on us."

Local believers now preached, discipled, planted churches, and sent missionaries to neighbouring tribes.

The missionaries had not built dependence.

They had built legacy.

Every believer should ask:

- If my ministry ended today, would the work continue?
- Am I preparing successors?
- Am I investing in people whose influence will exceed my own?
- Will future generations know Christ more deeply because I was faithful?

Kingdom legacy is not accidental.

It is built through daily acts of obedience over a lifetime.

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- Psalm 145:4
- Deuteronomy 6:6–9
- 2 Timothy 2:2
- Hebrews 11:13–16
- 1 Corinthians 15:58

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Father, let my life produce fruit that remains for generations.
2. Deliver me from living only for immediate results and give me an eternal perspective.
3. Raise fathers and mothers in the faith who will faithfully transfer Kingdom truth.
4. Let every church intentionally prepare the next generation of leaders.
5. Preserve the Gospel in purity from one generation to another.
6. Establish lasting works that glorify Christ long after we are gone.
7. Raise missionary movements that continue across generations until every nation hears.
8. Protect the next generation from compromise, deception, and spiritual decline.
9. May my children, spiritual children, and disciples exceed me in faithfulness and usefulness.
10. Let my life become part of Heaven's unbroken story of redemption among the nations.

Activation

Write down the names of three people into whom you can intentionally invest over the coming year.

Pray for each by name.

Determine one practical step you will take this week to encourage, teach, mentor, or disciple them.

Then ask yourself one searching question:

If Christ delayed His return by fifty years, what Kingdom fruit from my life would still be bearing fruit?

Begin building toward that answer today.

Proclamation

My life will leave a Kingdom legacy. I will faithfully pass the Gospel to the next generation. I will raise disciples, strengthen leaders, encourage churches, and advance Christ's mission among the nations. My labour in the Lord is not in vain. Through the grace of God, generations yet unborn shall praise the Lord because I was faithful to His calling. In Jesus' mighty Name. Amen.

From Multiplication to Movement—Releasing Kingdom Movements

Scripture for the Day

"So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed." Acts 19:20 (KJV)

Supplementary Reading: Acts 19:8–20; Isaiah 55:10–11; Habakkuk 2:14

Reflection

The Kingdom of God was never intended merely to produce isolated disciples, individual churches, or occasional missionary successes.

God's desire is to raise movements.

A movement occurs when spiritual multiplication becomes self-sustaining under the power of the Holy Spirit.

One disciple makes disciples.

Those disciples establish healthy churches.

Healthy churches send labourers.

Labourers reach new communities.

Those communities become multiplying churches.

The cycle continues until entire regions are transformed by the Gospel.

This is precisely what happened throughout the Book of Acts.

Beginning with a small group gathered in an upper room, the Gospel spread into Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria, and eventually throughout the Roman world.

No human organization could have engineered such extraordinary expansion.

The movement was driven by the Holy Spirit, empowered by prayer, rooted in God's Word, and sustained by obedient believers.

Kingdom movements share several characteristics:

- Christ remains the undisputed Head.
- Prayer precedes every advance.
- The authority of Scripture governs every decision.
- Disciple-making becomes the normal lifestyle of believers.
- Leadership is continually reproduced.
- Churches willingly release their best people.
- Every believer understands personal responsibility.
- The Holy Spirit receives all the glory.

Movements are not manufactured.

They are stewarded.

Our responsibility is to obey.

God supplies the increase.

Many ministries spend enormous effort attempting to become larger.

God calls us instead to become more reproducible.

When obedience is multiplied under the direction of the Holy Spirit, movements emerge naturally.

The Kingdom advances not through human ambition but through surrendered lives filled with the Spirit of God.

Biblical Precedent

During Paul's ministry in Ephesus, believers publicly renounced occult practices, destroyed objects associated with their former way of life, and the Word of God spread with extraordinary power throughout the region (Acts 19:18–20).

The church in Antioch repeatedly sent missionary teams, becoming a catalyst for a movement that carried the Gospel across continents.

The Book of Acts repeatedly demonstrates that wherever the Holy Spirit finds yielded believers, Kingdom movements follow.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

In one region where only a handful of Christians were known, several believers began meeting consistently for prayer.

They asked God for one thing:

“Raise disciple-makers.”

Rather than depending upon visiting evangelists, they trained local believers to share the Gospel, disciple new converts, and begin simple fellowships in their own communities.

Within a few years, dozens of Bible study groups had become churches.

Those churches were already training new leaders before they required outside assistance.

What started as faithful obedience gradually became a regional movement.

No single personality received the credit.

Christ alone was exalted.

This is the pattern Heaven delights to bless.

Ask yourself today:

- Am I building a ministry or participating in a movement?
- Does my work depend upon me, or can it multiply through others?
- Am I praying merely for personal success, or for regional transformation?
- What would change if I intentionally lived to see the Kingdom spread beyond my own influence?

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- Acts 19:20
- Matthew 13:31–33
- Isaiah 55:10–11
- Habakkuk 2:14
- Acts 1:8

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Father, let Your Word grow mightily and prevail in every city and nation.
2. Raise Kingdom movements that will transform communities through the power of the Holy Spirit.
3. Let disciple-making movements arise among every unreached people group.
4. Raise multiplying churches that continually send workers into the harvest.
5. Fill pastors, missionaries, and believers with fresh apostolic vision for regional transformation.
6. Let every stronghold opposing the spread of the Gospel be broken in Jesus' Name.
7. Pour out the spirit of prayer, holiness, unity, and bold evangelism upon Your Church.
8. Raise leaders who seek Christ's glory rather than personal recognition.
9. May every revival become a sustained movement that reaches future generations.
10. Let the knowledge of the glory of the Lord fill the earth until every nation worships King Jesus.

Activation

Prayerfully draw a simple multiplication map.

Write your name in the centre.

Then add the names of those you are discipling, encouraging, or influencing.

Beside each name, ask:

“Who are they preparing?”

Where no names exist, begin intentionally.

Where names exist, strengthen them.

Pray over the entire map, asking God to turn faithful disciples into disciple-makers, disciple-makers into church planters, and church planters into catalysts of Kingdom movements.

Proclamation

The Word of God shall grow mightily and prevail through my life. I am part of God's Kingdom movement in the earth. By the power of the Holy Spirit, I will make disciples, strengthen churches, raise leaders, and help advance the Gospel until every nation hears. My life will contribute to a multiplying movement that brings glory to Jesus Christ throughout the earth. Amen.

The Power of Persistent Prayer in Kingdom Advance

Scripture for the Day

Luke 18:1–8; Acts 4:23–31

Reflection

Every great spiritual awakening has been preceded by persistent, united prayer. Jesus taught that His disciples “ought always to pray and not to faint.” Kingdom advances are rarely won through human ability but through believers who refuse to abandon the place of intercession. Persistent prayer aligns our hearts with God’s purposes, breaks spiritual resistance, strengthens weary labourers, and prepares entire communities for the Gospel. The praying Church becomes the prevailing Church because Heaven responds to believing, persevering prayer.

Biblical Precedent

The early believers continued steadfastly in prayer after persecution. Instead of retreating, they sought fresh boldness, and the Holy Spirit shook the place where they were gathered. From that prayer meeting came renewed courage, miracles, and continued Gospel expansion throughout the region.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Many mission fields remained closed until faithful believers prayed consistently over many years. When God finally opened those doors, entire communities received Christ. Never underestimate what persistent prayer is accomplishing behind the scenes.

Five Scriptures

- Luke 18:1–8
- Acts 4:23–31
- James 5:16
- Colossians 4:2–4
- Isaiah 62:6–7

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Raise watchmen who never cease to pray.
2. Release boldness upon every Gospel worker.
3. Break spiritual resistance over unreached peoples.
4. Ignite revival through persistent intercession.
5. Let prayer become the engine of every church.
6. Strengthen weary intercessors.
7. Open closed nations to the Gospel.
8. Raise prayer movements among young people.
9. Unite believers in prevailing prayer.
10. Let Your Kingdom come in every nation.

Activation

Dedicate thirty uninterrupted minutes today to praying specifically for one unreached nation, your local church, and one missionary you know.

Proclamation

I shall not faint in prayer. My prayers shall prepare the way for Kingdom breakthroughs, strengthen labourers, overthrow spiritual opposition, and advance the Gospel among the nations, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

The Holy Spirit—The Power Behind Kingdom Multiplication

Scripture for the Day

Acts 1:8; Zechariah 4:6

Reflection

No strategy can replace the ministry of the Holy Spirit. Jesus commanded His disciples to wait until they received power from on high because Kingdom work requires supernatural empowerment. Human wisdom may organize ministry, but only the Holy Spirit produces conviction, transformation, spiritual gifts, holy character, and enduring fruit. Every multiplying movement in history has depended upon believers who continually lived under His guidance and power.

Biblical Precedent

At Pentecost, fearful disciples became courageous witnesses. Thousands believed, churches were planted, miracles occurred, and the Gospel spread across nations because ordinary people were filled with the Holy Spirit.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Many missionaries have testified that impossible breakthroughs came only after complete dependence upon the Holy Spirit. Doors unexpectedly opened, hostile hearts softened, and entire villages responded because God Himself went before His servants.

Five Scriptures

- Acts 1:8
- Zechariah 4:6
- John 16:13
- Romans 8:14
- Ephesians 5:18

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Fill me afresh with the Holy Spirit.
2. Let every church walk in spiritual power.
3. Raise Spirit-filled disciple-makers.
4. Manifest spiritual gifts for Kingdom advance.
5. Destroy dependence upon human strength.
6. Release boldness for evangelism.
7. Let signs confirm the preaching of the Gospel.
8. Raise holy and humble leaders.
9. Guide missionaries by Your Spirit.
10. Glorify Christ through Your Church.

Activation

Spend time worshipping quietly today, asking the Holy Spirit to search your heart, renew your passion for Christ, and direct your next step of obedience.

Proclamation

The Holy Spirit empowers my life. I shall minister with divine wisdom, holy character, supernatural boldness, and lasting fruit. Not by might nor by power, but by the Spirit of the Lord shall the Kingdom advance through me. Amen.

Persevering Through Opposition

Scripture for the Day

2 Timothy 3:12; Acts 14:21–22

Reflection

Every generation that advances God’s Kingdom encounters resistance. Opposition should not surprise the believer; it often confirms that the Gospel is confronting darkness. The apostles endured persecution, imprisonment, rejection, and hardship, yet they continued preaching Christ with joy. God does not promise an easy journey, but He promises His sustaining presence. Every trial becomes an opportunity for the faithfulness of Christ to be displayed.

Biblical Precedent

Paul and Barnabas strengthened new believers by teaching that “through much tribulation we must enter into the kingdom of God.” Their perseverance encouraged entire churches to remain steadfast despite suffering.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Many believers serving in difficult nations continue faithfully despite threats and hardship. Their endurance has resulted in thriving churches where none once existed. Faithfulness under pressure often produces the greatest Kingdom harvest.

Five Scriptures

- 2 Timothy 3:12
- Acts 14:21–22
- Romans 8:35–39
- James 1:2–4
- Isaiah 41:10

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Strengthen persecuted believers worldwide.
2. Give courage to every Gospel worker.
3. Let suffering produce greater fruit.
4. Destroy fear through the power of Christ.
5. Preserve the faith of new believers.
6. Protect missionaries and their families.
7. Turn persecution into Gospel opportunities.
8. Grant endurance to weary servants.
9. Glorify Christ through steadfast obedience.
10. Let Your Church overcome every opposition.

Activation

Encourage one believer who may be discouraged. Pray with them personally and remind them of God's promises to sustain those who faithfully endure.

Proclamation

I shall not retreat before opposition. Christ strengthens me, preserves me, and causes me to overcome. Every trial shall become a testimony, and every challenge shall advance His Kingdom. Amen.

Until Every Nation Hears

Scripture for the Day

Matthew 24:14; Revelation 7:9–10

Reflection

The story of Scripture begins with creation and concludes with worship around God's throne by people from every tribe, language, nation, and people group. This is God's unchanging purpose. Every prayer, every disciple, every church planted, every missionary sent, every Bible translated, and every act of obedience contributes to this glorious future. The Great Commission is not merely a command to obey—it is the certainty of God's ultimate victory. Until every nation hears, the Church must continue praying, giving, sending, and going.

Biblical Precedent

John's vision revealed the completed harvest—a countless multitude worshipping the Lamb. What began with Abraham's call reaches its fulfillment in the worship of all nations before Christ's throne.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Throughout history, believers have given their lives so others might hear the Gospel. Their sacrifices remind us that we stand in a long line of faithful witnesses, each carrying the torch until Christ returns.

Five Scriptures

- Matthew 24:14
- Revelation 7:9–10
- Psalm 67
- Isaiah 49:6
- Habakkuk 2:14

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

1. Let every unreached people hear the Gospel.
2. Raise thousands of new missionaries.
3. Bless churches that faithfully send and support workers.
4. Accelerate Bible translation worldwide.
5. Open closed nations to Christ.
6. Unite the global Church around the Great Commission.
7. Raise generous Kingdom partners.
8. Preserve missionary families.
9. Let revival spread among every nation.
10. Hasten the day when every people worships King Jesus.

Activation

Choose one unreached nation or people group. Commit to praying for them regularly, learning about them, and supporting God's work among them through giving, mobilizing, or going as the Lord directs.

Proclamation

I joyfully embrace God's global purpose. My life, my prayers, my resources, and my obedience belong to Jesus Christ. I shall labour faithfully until every tribe, every tongue, every people, and every nation has heard the Gospel and worships the Lamb who was slain. Amen.

July 21–24, 2026

Theme: Living as a Multiplying Disciple-Maker

Building upon July 1–20: From God's Heart for the Nations → The Call to Make Disciples → Developing a Culture of Multiplication → Reproducing Leaders. We now move into the personal lifestyle of a disciple-maker whose influence continues to multiply through intentional living.

Tuesday, July 21

The Disciple-Maker's Greatest Sermon: A Life Worth Following

Scripture for the Day

1 Corinthians 11:1

"Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ."

Reflection

The greatest disciple-makers have always understood that people learn more from what they observe than from what they hear. Before Jesus sent His disciples to preach, He invited them to walk with Him. They watched Him pray before they learned to pray. They observed His compassion before they ministered to the hurting. They saw His dependence upon the Father before they were entrusted with authority.

Multiplication begins long before teaching begins. It starts with example.

Paul could boldly invite believers to imitate him because every area of his life pointed toward Christ. His ministry possessed credibility because his character supported his message.

In our generation there is an abundance of information but often a shortage of authentic examples. Churches may produce attenders through programs, but disciple-makers are produced through relationships where lives become visible.

Every believer leaves footprints. The question is whether those footprints lead others closer to Christ.

The Kingdom advances when ordinary believers consistently demonstrate humility, integrity, prayerfulness, generosity, perseverance, forgiveness, and obedience. Such lives silently preach every day.

The disciple-maker therefore asks not merely, "What am I teaching?" but also, "What am I reproducing?"

Biblical Precedent

Jesus invested His life in twelve ordinary men over three years. His teaching was inseparable from His daily conduct. They witnessed His response to criticism, opposition, exhaustion, rejection, celebration, and suffering. After His ascension they reproduced the very pattern they had observed.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Many missionary movements have flourished because mature believers simply invited younger Christians into their daily lives. They prayed together, visited homes together, served together, and learned ministry while doing ministry.

Long after sermons are forgotten, people remember how faithful leaders lived.

Today someone may be watching your responses more carefully than your words.

Five Scriptures

- 1 Corinthians 11:1
- 1 Timothy 4:12
- Philippians 3:17
- Titus 2:7–8
- Matthew 5:16

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Lord, make my life consistent with my message.
- Let Christ be clearly seen in every attitude and action.
- Remove every hidden compromise that weakens my witness.
- Raise authentic examples within Your Church.
- Let my influence produce faithful followers of Christ.

Activation

Invite someone younger in the faith to spend time serving, praying, or ministering alongside you this week.

Proclamation

“My life reflects Christ. My example strengthens believers. Through the grace of God, I reproduce disciples whose lives also glorify Jesus.”

Wednesday, July 22

Multiplication Through Intentional Relationships

Scripture for the Day

2 Timothy 2:2

“The things you have heard from me... entrust to faithful people who will be able to teach others also.”

Reflection

Healthy multiplication rarely happens accidentally.

Paul's instruction reveals four generations of multiplication:

Christ...

Paul...

Timothy...

Faithful people...

Others also.

This is the mathematics of the Kingdom.

Many ministries remain dependent upon one gifted leader because intentional mentoring has never become a priority. Yet God's design is that every mature believer should eventually become a spiritual parent.

Disciple-makers deliberately identify faithful, teachable people. They spend time together. They answer questions. They model ministry. They encourage growth. They release responsibility gradually.

Relationships—not merely meetings—produce multiplication.

Jesus often withdrew privately with His disciples to explain truths that crowds never understood. Private investment produced public effectiveness.

The Kingdom advances whenever mature believers intentionally pour themselves into others without seeking personal recognition.

The question every believer should ask is simple:

Who is helping me grow?

Whom am I helping grow?

When both questions have biblical answers, multiplication is already taking place.

Biblical Precedent

Barnabas intentionally invested in Saul when many feared him. Later Paul invested deeply in Timothy, Titus, Silas, and many others. Their ministries continued long after Paul's earthly race was finished.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Throughout history, revivals have expanded because believers met regularly in homes, workplaces, and small groups where spiritual formation occurred personally rather than impersonally.

The strongest movements rarely depend solely upon platforms; they flourish through faithful relationships.

Five Scriptures

- 2 Timothy 2:2
- Mark 3:14
- Acts 18:24–28
- Proverbs 27:17
- Ecclesiastes 4:9–10

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Lord, connect me with faithful people whom I should disciple.
- Give me patience to invest deeply in others.
- Raise trustworthy spiritual sons and daughters throughout Your Church.
- Remove selfish ambition that hinders multiplication.
- Let every relationship assigned by Heaven produce eternal fruit.

Activation

Identify one believer whom you will intentionally encourage, mentor, or pray with consistently over the coming months.

Proclamation

“I invest intentionally. I raise faithful believers. God’s Kingdom multiplies through relationships that reproduce Christ in others.”

Thursday, July 23

Serving Before Leading

Scripture for the Day

Mark 10:45

“For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve...”

Reflection

The Kingdom reverses the values of the world.

The world measures greatness by titles, influence, and authority. Jesus measures greatness by humble service.

Every genuine disciple-maker develops a servant’s heart before carrying significant responsibility.

Jesus washed His disciples’ feet on the very night before the Cross. The One possessing all authority demonstrated that leadership exists for the benefit of others.

Those who seek recognition often struggle to multiply because they unconsciously create dependence upon themselves. Servants, however, rejoice whenever others succeed.

Servant leadership creates healthy environments where emerging leaders flourish without fear.

A multiplying leader celebrates the promotion of others rather than protecting personal status.

God entrusts greater influence to those who faithfully serve without demanding applause.

When humility becomes the culture of a church, multiplication accelerates because people willingly serve wherever needed.

Biblical Precedent

Before David became Israel's king, he faithfully shepherded sheep, served Saul, cared for his family, and protected God's people. Hidden faithfulness prepared him for public responsibility.

Likewise, Jesus Himself spent many hidden years in faithful obedience before beginning His public ministry.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Many of God's most fruitful servants spent years serving quietly before becoming widely known. Their influence rested upon deep character developed through unseen obedience.

Heaven often prepares leaders in obscurity before entrusting them with visibility.

Five Scriptures

- Mark 10:42–45
- John 13:12–17
- Philippians 2:3–8
- Matthew 23:11
- Luke 16:10

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Lord, clothe me with humility.
- Deliver me from pride and self-promotion.
- Teach me to serve joyfully wherever You place me.
- Raise servant leaders throughout Your Church.
- Let humility preserve every work You entrust to me.

Activation

Perform an act of service today without expecting recognition or appreciation.

Proclamation

“I follow Christ’s example of humble service. God develops my character before enlarging my influence. My leadership exists to strengthen others.”

July 24–28, 2026

Theme: From Personal Multiplication to Kingdom Movement

Building upon July 1–23: We have moved from God’s heart for the nations, to the Great Commission, to creating a culture of multiplication, and finally to the personal life of a disciple-maker. We now begin another progression: moving beyond individual faithfulness into building enduring Kingdom movements that will outlive us.

Friday, July 24

Faithfulness in Small Assignments Produces Greater Multiplication

Scripture for the Day

Luke 16:10

“Whoever is faithful with very little will also be faithful with much.”

Reflection

Kingdom multiplication is built upon daily faithfulness rather than occasional moments of greatness.

Every significant ministry begins with seemingly small acts of obedience. A conversation, a home Bible study, a prayer meeting, a visit to encourage one believer, or a simple act of generosity may become the seed of a movement that impacts generations.

Jesus consistently emphasized stewardship before expansion. Those who proved faithful with little received greater responsibility. Those who neglected small opportunities forfeited larger assignments.

Many believers pray for greater influence while overlooking today’s opportunities. Yet Heaven measures readiness by present faithfulness.

Small responsibilities reveal the condition of the heart. They expose whether we serve for recognition or from genuine love for Christ.

God delights in entrusting His work to dependable people whose commitment remains constant whether seen by crowds or known only to Him. The Lord who multiplied five loaves and two fish still delights to multiply whatever is willingly placed into His hands.

Never underestimate the eternal significance of consistent obedience. A faithful disciple may influence one person today, who reaches ten tomorrow, who disciple hundreds in years to come. This is how the Kingdom advances—from faithful life to faithful life, generation after generation.

As we conclude this section on living as multiplying disciple-makers, remember that multiplication is not first about methods but about faithfulness. God gives the increase to those who faithfully sow, faithfully water, faithfully pray, and faithfully invest in people. What appears small in human eyes often becomes mighty in God’s hands.

Biblical Precedent

The boy who willingly offered his small lunch could never have imagined that it would feed thousands. God specializes in multiplying what is surrendered to Him in faith.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Across the nations, many churches that now send missionaries began as small prayer gatherings in homes. Faithfulness over time allowed God to expand what was once considered insignificant.

Five Scriptures

- Luke 16:10
- Matthew 25:21
- Zechariah 4:10
- Galatians 6:9
- 1 Corinthians 15:58

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Lord, make me faithful in every assignment You give me.
- Help me value small opportunities for Kingdom impact.
- Multiply every seed I sow for Your glory.
- Preserve me from discouragement while waiting for increase.
- Let my faithfulness contribute to a movement that reaches the nations.

Activation

Identify one “small” act of obedience you have delayed. Complete it today as an offering of faithfulness to God.

Proclamation

“I am faithful in little and faithful in much. God multiplies my obedience, expands my influence, and uses my life to advance His Kingdom among the nations.”

Saturday, July 25

Seeing Beyond Addition into Multiplication

Scripture for the Day

Acts 6:7 “The word of God spread. The number of disciples multiplied greatly...”

Reflection

There is a significant difference between addition and multiplication.

Addition depends largely upon one leader gathering more people. Multiplication develops many disciple-makers who reproduce themselves again and again.

Jesus never intended His Church merely to become larger; He intended it to become reproductive. Every believer is called not only to receive spiritual life but also to impart it.

The early Church expanded because ordinary believers carried the Gospel wherever they went. They understood that every disciple was also a witness, every home could become a ministry center, and every new believer could eventually become another disciple-maker.

Kingdom multiplication transforms spectators into participants. It replaces dependency with responsibility and releases every believer into meaningful service.

Healthy churches ask not only, “How many people attended?” but also, “How many disciple-makers are we raising?”

Multiplication is the heartbeat of the Great Commission.

Biblical Precedent

Following persecution in Jerusalem, believers scattered throughout the regions preaching Christ wherever they travelled. What seemed like a setback became the catalyst for rapid multiplication.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Some of today’s fastest-growing church movements flourish because every new believer is immediately encouraged to share Christ, disciple others, and establish new fellowships. Multiplication becomes a way of life rather than a special programme.

Five Scriptures

- Acts 6:7
- Acts 8:4
- Matthew 28:19–20
- 2 Timothy 2:2
- John 15:16

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Deliver Your Church from passive Christianity.
- Raise multiplying disciples in every congregation.
- Let every believer become a witness.
- Increase Kingdom fruitfulness across the nations.

- Let multiplication replace stagnation.

Activation

Share your testimony with one person this week and pray intentionally for an opportunity to disciple them.

Proclamation

“I am called to multiply, not merely to maintain. Through me, Christ will raise new disciples for His Kingdom.”

Sunday, July 26

Building Generations Rather Than Ministries

Scripture for the Day

Psalm 145:4 “One generation shall praise Your works to another...”

Reflection

God thinks in generations.

Many ministries become successful yet fail to endure because they were built around personalities instead of people. God’s Kingdom advances through generations of faithful men and women who continually pass the truth to those who follow.

Moses prepared Joshua. Elijah prepared Elisha. Paul prepared Timothy. Jesus prepared the Twelve.

None of them considered succession an afterthought. They understood that Kingdom leadership must continually reproduce itself.

A true disciple-maker rejoices when those they have trained become effective servants of Christ. They do not fear being surpassed; instead, they celebrate it.

Our greatest achievement will not be what we build during our lifetime but what continues after we have finished our course.

Kingdom legacy is measured by the lives that continue advancing God’s purposes long after we are gone.

Biblical Precedent

Before his death, Moses publicly commissioned Joshua so that God’s people would continue advancing toward the Promised Land. Leadership transition preserved the mission.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Many missionary organizations have flourished across generations because experienced workers intentionally invested in younger leaders who carried the vision farther than their predecessors imagined.

Five Scriptures

- Psalm 145:4
- Deuteronomy 6:6–9
- 2 Timothy 1:5
- Joshua 1:1–9
- Psalm 78:4–7

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Lord, make me a builder of generations.
- Raise spiritual sons and daughters throughout the nations.
- Preserve Kingdom vision beyond one generation.
- Deliver us from personality-centred ministry.
- Establish enduring spiritual legacies.

Activation

Encourage someone younger in the faith today by sharing a lesson God has taught you through experience.

Proclamation

“My life will influence generations. God’s truth will continue through those He enables me to disciple.”

Monday, July 27

Multiplying Through Prayer

Scripture for the Day

Matthew 9:37–38

“Pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.”

Reflection

Every lasting movement of God has been born in prayer.

Prayer does not merely support multiplication—it initiates it. Before Jesus chose the Twelve, He spent the night in prayer. Before Pentecost, believers waited together in united prayer. Before missionaries were commissioned from Antioch, leaders worshipped, fasted, and prayed.

Prayer aligns our hearts with God's mission. It enlarges our vision beyond personal concerns and awakens compassion for people who have never heard the Gospel.

When the Church prays strategically, God raises laborers, opens closed nations, softens hardened hearts, and releases resources for the harvest.

Disciple-makers therefore become intercessors before they become strategists.

Kingdom multiplication begins in the prayer room before it appears on the mission field.

Biblical Precedent

The church at Antioch prayed and fasted until the Holy Spirit commissioned Barnabas and Saul for missionary service. Their obedience transformed the history of Christianity.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Throughout history, missionary awakenings have consistently followed sustained prayer movements. The harvest has always expanded where God's people first humbled themselves before Him.

Five Scriptures

- Matthew 9:37–38
- Acts 13:1–3
- Colossians 4:2–4
- Ephesians 6:18–20
- James 5:16

Strategic-Level Warrior Prayers

- Lord of the harvest, raise laborers for every nation.
- Awaken global prayer movements.
- Open doors for the Gospel where access seems impossible.
- Give Your Church fresh compassion for the lost.
- Let prayer precede every Kingdom advance.

Activation

Spend dedicated time today praying specifically for unreached peoples, missionaries, and future disciple-makers.

Proclamation

The Reproducing Disciple-Maker: Multiplication Beyond One Generation

Scripture for the Day

2 Timothy 2:2

“And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.”

Reflection on Scripture

Kingdom multiplication reaches its highest expression when disciple-makers intentionally produce disciple-makers who will continue reproducing long after they themselves have finished their earthly assignment. This is the fourth generation principle that Paul entrusted to Timothy.

Observe the remarkable sequence:

- Paul teaches Timothy.
- Timothy trains faithful men.
- Faithful men teach others.
- Those others continue the cycle.

This is not merely church growth. It is generational Kingdom expansion.

Many ministries unintentionally stop with first-generation success. They produce converts but not disciples. Others produce disciples but fail to develop leaders. Some develop leaders who become dependent upon them instead of becoming spiritual fathers and mothers themselves.

Jesus never intended ministry to revolve around personalities. His plan was a multiplying movement.

Every mature believer should continually ask:

“Who am I intentionally reproducing?”

Likewise every disciple should ask:

“Who am I preparing to surpass me?”

True apostolic ministry measures success not by personal influence but by spiritual reproduction.

The Kingdom never depends upon one generation.

Biblical Precedent

Paul's ministry demonstrates intentional multiplication.

He invested deeply in Timothy, Titus, Luke, Silas, Epaphroditus and many others.

These leaders established churches, appointed elders, strengthened believers and reproduced leadership across the Roman world.

Within one generation the Gospel had reached thousands of communities because disciple-makers continued reproducing disciple-makers.

This remains God's strategy today.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

History confirms that the greatest Kingdom movements were built upon reproducible discipleship rather than celebrity leadership.

The early church spread throughout the Roman Empire because ordinary believers became intentional witnesses wherever they travelled.

Missionary movements have often grown rapidly when local believers were equipped to disciple others rather than depending upon foreign missionaries.

Likewise, families become spiritually strong when parents intentionally disciple children who later disciple their own households.

Healthy churches prepare successors before they are needed.

Healthy ministries continually raise replacements.

Healthy disciple-makers rejoice when those they trained become even more fruitful.

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- 2 Timothy 2:2
- Matthew 28:19–20
- John 15:16
- Acts 14:21–23
- Philippians 4:9

Strategic Level Warrior Prayers

1. Father, make my life a reproducing vineyard that continually raises faithful labourers.
2. Remove every selfish desire to build my own kingdom instead of Yours.
3. Raise spiritual sons and daughters who will exceed my accomplishments.
4. Give me discernment to identify faithful people worthy of deep investment.
5. Break every cycle where ministry depends upon one personality.
6. Establish generational continuity throughout Your Church.
7. Raise multiplying disciple-makers across every nation.
8. Let revival become self-propagating through obedient disciples.

9. Make my influence continue long after my earthly assignment has ended.
10. May generations yet unborn encounter Christ because of today's obedience.

Activation

Identify one believer with spiritual potential.

Commit to investing in that person consistently through prayer, Scripture, mentoring and practical ministry over the coming year.

Begin praying not merely for their growth but for those they will eventually disciple.

Proclamation

I refuse to live only for my generation. I shall reproduce faithful disciples who will disciple others until the knowledge of Christ fills the earth. My labour shall multiply across generations for the glory of God. Amen.

The Church as a Sending Movement

Scripture for the Day

Acts 13:2–3 “Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.”

Reflection on Scripture

- A mature church is not merely a gathering church; it is a sending church.
- The believers in Antioch were worshipping, praying and fasting when the Holy Spirit interrupted their comfortable routine.
- Instead of keeping their two strongest leaders, they released them.
- Natural thinking says:

“Keep your best people.”

Kingdom thinking says:

“Release your best people.”

- Sending always appears costly.
- Yet every genuine release creates room for God to raise more workers.
- Churches that refuse to send eventually become stagnant.
- Churches that continually release people experience supernatural increase.
- Sending includes missionaries, church planters, evangelists, teachers, business professionals, students and families whom God positions strategically throughout society.
- Every believer has a mission field.
- Some cross oceans.
- Others cross streets.
- Some enter government.
- Others enter universities.
- Still others influence business, medicine, education, technology or media.
- The Church exists not to preserve itself but to advance God’s Kingdom into every sphere of society.
- Sending is evidence of spiritual maturity.

Biblical Precedent

- The church at Antioch became one of history’s greatest missionary centres.
- Its willingness to obey the Holy Spirit launched Paul’s missionary journeys.
- Through those journeys churches were planted across Asia Minor, Greece and eventually Europe.
- Much of the New Testament exists because one church chose obedience over comfort.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

- Throughout history, churches that intentionally commission and support missionaries have often become centres of ongoing revival.
- Many local congregations discover that generosity toward missions produces renewed vision within their own fellowship.
- Likewise, families who release children into God’s calling frequently witness extraordinary spiritual fruit extending far beyond what they imagined.
- Sending is not losing people.
- Sending is expanding Kingdom influence.

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- Acts 13:2–3

- Isaiah 6:8
- Matthew 9:37–38
- Romans 10:14–15
- Psalm 67:1–2

Strategic Level Warrior Prayers

1. Lord, make my life continually available for Your assignments.
2. Raise sending churches across every nation.
3. Deliver congregations from inward-looking ministry.
4. Release labourers into every unreached people group.
5. Open nations presently resistant to the Gospel.
6. Provide abundant resources for Kingdom expansion.
7. Strengthen missionaries facing persecution.
8. Let every local church become a missions training centre.
9. Raise courageous young leaders willing to obey Your voice.
10. May the Gospel rapidly reach every tribe, language and nation.

Activation

- Pray today for one missionary or mission agency.
- Consider practical ways your church, family or fellowship can intentionally strengthen global missions.

Proclamation

- The Holy Spirit directs my steps. I gladly participate in God’s global mission. My resources, gifts and life belong to Christ for the completion of the Great Commission. Amen.

Finishing the Race with Faithfulness

Scripture for the Day

2 Timothy 4:7–8

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.”

Reflection on Scripture

- Kingdom success is not measured by how well we begin but by how faithfully we finish.
- Many people start enthusiastically.
- Few finish consistently.
- Paul endured imprisonment, persecution, betrayal, hardship, loneliness and suffering.
- Yet near the end of life he did not speak of earthly achievements.
- He celebrated faithfulness.
- He finished his assignment.
- Every believer has a God-designed course.
- Comparison distracts us.
- Competition weakens us.
- Faithfulness strengthens us.
- Our responsibility is not to imitate another person's calling.
- Our responsibility is to complete the race assigned to us.
- Faithfulness is often demonstrated in ordinary obedience.
- Daily prayer.
- Daily Scripture.
- Daily holiness.
- Daily forgiveness.
- Daily service.
- Daily witness.
- These ordinary acts become extraordinary when repeated faithfully over decades.
- The crown belongs not merely to gifted people but to faithful servants.

Biblical Precedent

Joshua completed the work entrusted to him after Moses.

Nehemiah finished rebuilding Jerusalem's walls despite intense opposition.

Jesus Himself declared:

"It is finished."

Every divine assignment has a finish line.

God desires His servants to complete it with integrity.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

- Across the nations there are countless servants whose names are largely unknown yet whose faithful obedience has transformed villages, churches, families and communities.
- Many never preached to thousands.
- Many never wrote books.
- Yet heaven celebrates their faithfulness.
- God measures differently from the world.
- Faithfulness always outweighs popularity.

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- 2 Timothy 4:7–8
- Hebrews 12:1–2
- Philippians 3:13–14
- John 17:4
- Matthew 25:21

Strategic Level Warrior Prayers

1. Lord, keep me faithful until my final breath.
2. Protect me from distractions that delay my assignment.
3. Strengthen me during seasons of weariness.
4. Preserve my integrity in every circumstance.
5. Help me remain humble through success.
6. Give me endurance during adversity.
7. May my family also finish faithfully.
8. Raise faithful leaders throughout every generation.
9. Let my work produce eternal fruit.
10. May I one day hear, “Well done, good and faithful servant.”

Activation

- Review your life’s calling.
- Identify one unfinished area where God is calling you to renewed commitment.
- Take one practical step today.

Proclamation

- I shall finish my course. I shall keep the faith. I shall not grow weary in well-doing. Christ who called me will sustain me until the completion of my assignment. Amen.

 July 31Until the Earth Is Filled with His Glory*Scripture for the Day*Habakkuk 2:14

“For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.”

Reflection on Scripture

- This month has traced the Kingdom pathway from becoming devoted disciples to multiplying disciple-makers, raising leaders, planting churches, sending labourers, reproducing spiritual generations and finishing faithfully.
- The journey now ends where Scripture ends—with God’s global purpose.
- The Great Commission is not merely a command to be obeyed; it is a prophetic promise that God Himself will accomplish through His Church. Habakkuk saw a future in which the knowledge of the Lord’s glory would flood the earth with the same certainty that waters cover the sea. The question is not whether God’s Kingdom will advance, but whether we will joyfully participate in His advancing purpose.
- Every prayer offered in faith, every disciple patiently mentored, every church planted, every missionary sent, every child taught the Scriptures, every act of sacrificial generosity, and every faithful witness becomes part of God’s unfolding redemptive story.
- The Kingdom grows quietly like seed beneath the soil, yet it eventually becomes a harvest beyond human calculation. Jesus compared it to mustard seed and leaven because His work often begins unnoticed before transforming entire communities and nations.
- Our calling, therefore, is to remain steadfast. We are not responsible for controlling the harvest; we are responsible for faithful obedience to the Lord of the harvest. Heaven measures success by obedience, dependence and perseverance.
- As this month concludes, the invitation is not to end a devotional journey but to begin a lifelong lifestyle of multiplication. Carry forward the habits formed during these days: deeper prayer, richer meditation on Scripture, intentional disciple-making, generous participation in missions and unwavering commitment to Christ’s mission.
- May your home become a place where disciples are formed.
- May your church become a sending centre.
- May your workplace become a mission field.
- May your city experience revival.
- May your nation witness awakening.
- And may generations yet unborn bless God because you chose to obey Him in your lifetime.

- The story continues until every tribe, tongue, people and nation worship before the throne of the Lamb.

Biblical Precedent

The Bible closes with the triumphant vision of people from every nation worshipping before God's throne. The promise given to Abraham, fulfilled through Christ, proclaimed by the apostles and advanced by the Church reaches its glorious completion. God's missionary heart is revealed from Genesis to Revelation, and His Church has the privilege of participating in that eternal purpose.

Testimony and Daily Outworking

Around the world today, believers continue translating Scripture, planting churches, discipling new followers, serving communities, caring for the vulnerable and proclaiming Christ where He has never been known. The work is unfinished, yet the promise is certain. Each faithful act joins a worldwide movement through which God is drawing the nations to Himself.

Five Scriptures for Meditation

- Habakkuk 2:14
- Matthew 24:14
- Revelation 7:9–10
- Psalm 67:1–7
- Isaiah 49:6

Strategic Level Warrior Prayers

1. Father, let Your glory cover the earth through the faithful witness of Your Church.
2. Raise millions of mature disciple-makers in every nation.
3. Empower churches to become apostolic centres that send labourers to the nations.
4. Break every barrier preventing the Gospel from reaching unreached peoples.
5. Pour out revival upon cities, campuses, villages and governments.
6. Strengthen persecuted believers and establish them in unwavering faith.
7. Unite Your Church across denominations for the completion of the Great Commission.
8. Let the next generation burn with holy passion for Christ and His mission.
9. Use my life, family, ministry and resources for eternal Kingdom impact.
10. Hasten the day when every nation declares that Jesus Christ is Lord.

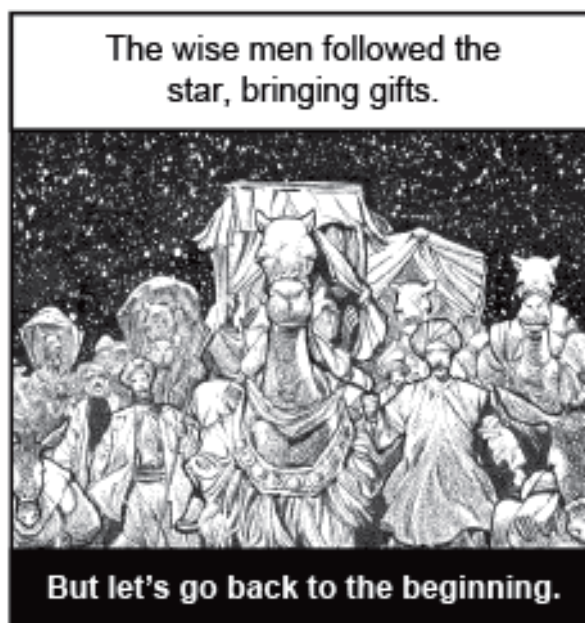

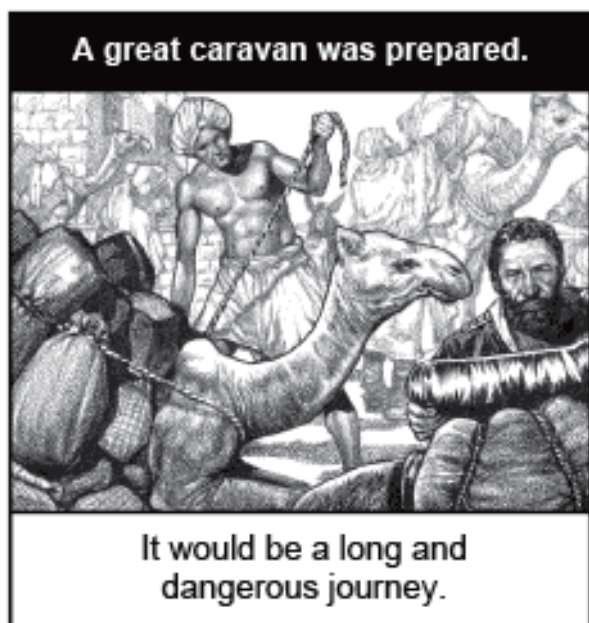

Activation

- Dedicate yourself afresh to God's global purpose. Write a personal Kingdom covenant before the Lord, identifying how you will pray, give, go, mentor and serve over the coming year so that your life intentionally contributes to the fulfilment of the Great Commission.

Proclamation

- I belong to Jesus Christ. I am His disciple, His servant and His ambassador. I will make disciples, strengthen the Church, raise faithful leaders and advance His Kingdom until the knowledge of the glory of the Lord fills the earth as the waters cover the sea. My life shall bear fruit that remains for generations, and all glory shall belong to the Lamb forever. Amen.

The number two person of the Godhead (The Word) created the universe.

The Bible says: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made." John 1:1, 3

"The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us..." John 1:14
This was the Great One the wise men were coming to see.

Around 700 B.C., the prophet Isaiah said:

"Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign;

Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son...

and shall call his name Immanuel."*
Isaiah 7:14

*Which means, "God with us" (Matt. 1:23).

700 years later, Jerusalem was under the control of Rome...

and the Jews begged God to send the Messiah, the Promised One.

The angel Gabriel visited a virgin named Mary, who was engaged...

to Joseph of the house of David, and said...

"Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God."

The world would never be the same.

"...thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS."

"How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?"*

*Mary had never had sexual relations.

"The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee..."

and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee."

The angel told Mary her child would be called the "Son of God."

"...be it unto me according to thy word."

"For with God nothing shall be impossible." Luke 1:37

Joseph was troubled until God told him in a dream to take Mary as his wife...

"...for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS:

for he shall save his people from their sins." Matt. 1:20-21

Caesar Augustus decreed that all the world should be taxed, so Joseph went to Bethlehem to register.*

God's hand was in this.

*Luke 2:1

Mary and Joseph travelled 80 dangerous miles to get there.

The Bible prophesied that Jesus would be born in Bethlehem. (Micah 5:1-2)

THE CHILD WAS BORN!

This incredible, unlimited Spirit, who is God, clothed Himself with a frail human body.

Nearby, shepherds were watching over their flocks when...

Mary was ready to bring forth her first born, but Bethlehem was overflowing with people.
There was no room at the inn!

They were forced to stay in a smelly stable.

Far to the east, the caravan was still following the star.

When the caravan finally reached Jerusalem months later, the wise men visited King Herod.

Could it be Christ was born and Herod knew nothing about it?

Herod asked his advisers:

Herod immediately plotted to kill the Christ so he could stay in power.

And the angel said...

Suddenly a multitude of angels appeared, saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

The shepherds went and found the child in Bethlehem. (See Luke 2)

God told Joseph to flee to Egypt...

because Herod was furious and wanted little Jesus dead.

Herod sent soldiers to Bethlehem to kill ALL the boys two and under.

This satanic crime also fulfilled prophecy. (Matt. 2:18)

When Herod died, the family returned to Nazareth.

When you find the child, bring me word so I can worship him also.

The star led the wise men to the house where Jesus was.

"...they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped HIM."

And they brought him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

At age 30,
the Lord Jesus Christ began His earthly ministry.
(Luke 3:23)

“In Him (Jesus) was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light
shineth in darkness; and the darkness
comprehended it not.” John 1:4-5

That was the greatest life ever lived!

At age 12, Jesus astonished the religious leaders.

How can this child know so much about our laws?

Little did they know that they were talking to the God who gave those laws to Moses. (See John 1:10)

Every year, Jesus saw an innocent
Passover lamb killed. Like the lamb,
Jesus was pure. He NEVER sinned!*

*1 Peter 2:22
 John 1:29

Jesus knew that at age 33 He would become that Passover “lamb.”

He healed the sick, raised the dead, cast out demons, and preached repentance and forgiveness.

"For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."
John 3:17

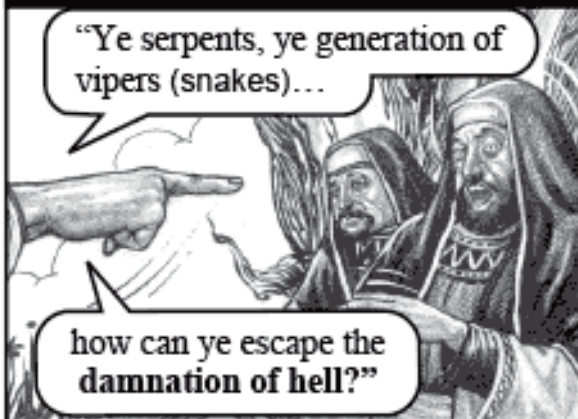

Jesus told why He came to earth.

"For God so loved the world..."

that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16

Jesus exposed the corrupt religious leaders.

"Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers (snakes)..."

how can ye escape the damnation of hell?"

In their hatred, they fulfilled prophecy by hatching a plot to kill Him. (Isaiah 53:7-12)

Jesus shook the religious world with these words:

"I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me."
John 14:6

He was falsely accused, tried by a rigged jury and sentenced to death.

The Lamb of God was sacrificed for our sins.

"Truly this was the Son of God!"

"But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Rom. 5:8

Jesus was buried and three days later rose from the dead.
Because of His sacrifice, anyone can now receive the gift of eternal life.

You can receive eternal life right now
by placing your trust in Jesus Christ:

Lord, I know I'm a sinner. I repent and believe You died for me...

Please come into my heart and save me.

"For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Romans 10:13

If you have received Christ, you will live forever with Him in heaven.

This is the greatest story ever told.

FULLSTATURE COLLEGE OF THE BIBLE AND MISSIONS

WISDOM TO PREPARE for the Work with Eternal Benefits for all.

We must think deeply about making Jesus known. He has given us the Holy Spirit, the Bible and many preachers but we need to be trained in our minds on how to be effective for the Lord.

Experience has shown that if we just count on our love and passion to make inroads in the mission field or as pastors or in ministry, we'd likely become burnt out and quit very soon. Instead, God gave us the wisdom to prepare. The interest you expressed at the AWMC24, must remain burning and you have opportunity to be trained.

If you just show up in ministry, hearts full of love for God and eager to make big changes for His Kingdom, you will likely be back home early, burnt out and disappointed.

Instead, God gives us the wisdom to slow down and discover how we could effectively work on His behalf, using the talents, skills, and education He blessed us with.

God cut us out for this work, but we are presently rough and unpolished. Fullstature College of the Bible and Missions (FCBM) will help take out the raw edges, sand out the splinters and prepared you for God to add the varnish, readying us to begin your work. Don't get us wrong we have always been a little unfinished, but God has helped us to help others since 1994. In this work, we will always need to be learning, growing, and adapting.

Unreached People by Region- Source: The Joshua Project, 2023

Definition

Unreached people groups are those who lack an indigenous church capable of evangelizing their own people. People groups are distinct social groups where shared language and cultural practices create communal belonging.

Missionary Challenge

The countries that have received the greatest amount of Western missionary attention over two centuries contain the greatest number of unreached and unreached people groups: China and India (which once included Pakistan and Bangladesh).
